Steel price hike slated by National

National Steel Corp., owner of Granite City Steel and third largest steel firm in terms of shipments, said Wednesday in Pittsburgh that it will meet U.S. Steel Corp. prices on light, flat-rolled and coated sheet products and on structural shapes and plate effective Oct. 1.

U.S. Steel had announced price boosts of about seven per cent for Sept. 1 and Oct. 1. National does not produce the items covered by the September price change.

National Steel cited sharply rising costs in its notification to the Council on Wage and Price Stability. It also noted "additional operating expenses for new environmental quality installations."

Specific amounts of the National price changes were not included in initial announcements.

Debate street hazard

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

Lengthy discussion by the Nameoki Town Board of Auditors and several East Madison residents Monday night led to a promise that holes in Farish Street will be repaired today, but failed to resolve the two-year-old question of who is responsible for repairing the street—the Nameoki Township Highway Department or the city of Madison.

It also is hoped that repairing the street will clarify differences between the two governmental entities which have resulted in having a school crossing light at Sixth Street and McCambridge Avenue turned off.

At Monday night's regular Nameoki Town Board of Auditors meeting, a plan was developed to bring the jurisdictional question about Farish Street to a head by asking the county superintendent of highways to hold a hearing and determine whether the street is within the Madison city limits or whether it is solely in Nameoki Township.

The plan called for three residents of East Madison to petition Nameoki Highway Commissioner Albert Bell to repair the street and 10 days later, if repairs were not made, to petition the county superintendent of highways. By law, if Bell did not repair the street within the 10 days, the county superintendent would have to call a hearing to settle the issue.

Yesterday, however, Bell "pulled the rug out from under" the plan, saying he will patch the holes in Farish Street today "on a one-time-only basis."

"I am not accepting responsibility for the street, but it is in bad shape and those people deserve to have something done," Bell told the Press-Record.

He said the work should begin by today. Bell said he has been informed by the county Maps and Plats Department that Farish Street is within the city of Madison and said he has requested his department's attorney, Nick D. Vassileff, to investigate the issue.

"Mr. Vassileff has been continually checking and we will continue to try and find out legally who is responsible for maintaining the street. If I am responsible, I will repair that street just like every other street in Nameoki Township," Bell pledged.

"I still would like to see this question settled," he concluded. Attorneys for the city of

Madison cites pact in 1969

By WALTER STRANGE
Press-Record Staff Writer

The Madison City Council was told Tuesday night by John Bellico, city clerk—at the request of Mayor Mike Sasyk who was out of town—that the mayor will not leave children unprotected from traffic at Sixth Street and McCambridge Avenue.

The traffic signal at Sixth Street and McCambridge Avenue was turned off two weeks ago by Mayor Sasyk, with the approval of the council, because the official felt that Nameoki Township officials are not living up to an agreement to share the cost of the light installation and maintenance.

Bellico referred to a letter dated Jan. 22, 1969, addressed to the late Mayor Steve Maerz from Harry A. Briggs, then supervisor of Nameoki Township, which reads:

"At the township meeting held on Jan. 7, 1969, the Town Board by unanimous vote approved the expenditure of motor fuel tax funds for the township participation with the city of Madison in erection of a traffic signal at Sixth and McCambridge. The manner in which the authorization was made was as follows: (1) Nameoki Township will share half of the cost of the installation with the city of Madison; (2) Authorization for such an expenditure must be approved by the county superintendent of

Burglar nets $3,200 loot

Items valued at about $3,254 were stolen during a burglary at the mobile home of Edgar Kincaid, 2827 Pershing Blvd., lot 8, which was discovered at 5:45 p.m. Wednesday.

A section of glass in the side of the mobile home was removed to gain entry. Taken were a large quantity of jewelry and art items as well as a pistol, a television, a pair of binoculars, two boxes of carpeting tools and 32 bi-centennial half-dollars.

Jewelry and art pieces taken included a $800 man's ring, a $500 ruby and a $100 emerald in a plastic bag, four ivory figurines made in China and worth $400, an eight-inch jade Buddha worth $500, two ivory vases worth $400 and a $115 hand-carved chess set.

2 firemen hurt at store blaze

Two Granite City firemen were injured at a Downtown area blaze that caused more than $75,000 damage Wednesday evening.

Flames first hit Dorian's bridal gown and dress store, 1303 Nineteenth St., at 6:40 p.m., virtually destroying the main floor and a storage area for the store on the second floor. The front wall of Dorian's collapsed onto 19th Street as firefighters tried to limit its spread. Four brick buildings with no space in between them occupy the half-block on the south side of 19th east of Delmar Avenue.

There was extensive damage to a vacant clothing store on the corner at 1300 Nineteenth, and some smoke and water damage at both Factory Outlet Shoes, 1304 Nineteenth, and Mac's Tavern, 1308 Nineteenth.

Of the two firemen injured while fighting the blaze, neither was hurt seriously. Junior Mathis suffered a left ankle injury while on an aerial ladder and was taken at 9 p.m. Wednesday to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where x-rays were made and he was released. Ray Romine III was taken to the hospital at 11:35 p.m. (Continued on Page 5)

SHOE FAIR OPENS TODAY. A new family shoe store opened today at 9:30 a.m. at Crossroads Plaza and will be open regularly Monday through Saturday until 9 p.m., and on Sunday from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m. The store has 2,700 square feet of display space, with over 6,000 pairs of shoes in stock, in addition to hose, stockings and other footwear accessories. Wayne Eglin is manager and Dennis Mack assistant manager. There are 65 Shoe Fair stores in the Midwest. (Press-Record Photo)

Cyclist killed

Patrick Duffin, 26, of 918 McCambridge Ave., Madison, was injured fatally when his motorcycle and the auto of Jess Landrus, 66, of 3001 Fourth St., Madison, collided on Edwardsville Road at 13th Street at 10:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Witnesses reported the southbound motorcycle passed one car which was in the outside lane, then crossed into that lane, passed a car which was in the inside lane and entered the intersection.

The northbound Landrus car was turning left onto 13th Street at that time and the motorcycle struck the right side of the car, just behind the front wheel, imbedding the front forks of the motorcycle into the side of the car.

Landrus, who suffered minor injuries, was charged with failure to yield the right of way when making a left turn. Mr. Duffin, who fell beside the car after the accident, was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was pronounced dead upon arrival at 10:40 p.m. He was born in Altam, Ill. He was employed at Granite City Steel.

Duffin served with the U.S. Marine Corps with duty in Vietnam. Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd (Norman) Duffin of Alhambra; five brothers, David Duffin, Saratoga, Calif.; Michael, John and Thomas Duffin of Alhambra; and Matthew Duffin of Grant Fork, Ill.; five sisters, Mrs. James (Cecelia) Kirchner of Jacksonville, N.C.; Miss Brian (Delores) Treusch of San Francisco, Calif.; Mrs. William (Maureen) Napper of Graceland, Ind.; Misses Margaret and Mary Duffin of Alhambra. Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

GC tax payments top $7 million

Granite City taxpayers paid a total of $7,046,418 in personal and real estate taxes during the fiscal year ending June 30, which ended early this morning. City Treasurer Paul Rutledge reported today.

Of this amount, $7 million has been distributed to the seven taxing districts in Granite City Township, with $3,906,805 of that amount going to Granite City School District 9.

An early distribution of tax money to provide operating funds for the taxing bodies was the primary objective of a local tax collection period which was arranged with the county treasurer's office at the expense of the township.

The balance of the more than $11 million charged for collection in Granite City Township will be paid to the county treasurer's office.

Rutledge said his office collected $3,654,408 in personal taxes and $3,392,009 in real estate taxes in separate tax collection periods. Granite City may now make payments in behalf of the county treasurer at all Granite City banks, Rutledge said.

Of the total of $7 million distributed by the office, the township received $2,507,620 and the Granite City Park District received $289,821. The Bellevue Area College, for which Granite City pays taxes for the first time this year, was given $190,750 of the tax distribution, and the remainder of $433,146 went to

News notes

The temperature reached 101 degrees here Tuesday afternoon.

Bi-State Development Agency leaders who went to Washington this week said they expect federal transit funding to be restored due to the agency's efforts to meet civil rights requirements. A socio-economic study will be made on use and routing of buses.

Mrs. Celeste Stiehl of Belleville will seek a third term as state representative rather than running for lieutenant governor on the Republican ticket, she said Tuesday. St. Clair County Sheriff Dave O'Neal is seeking the lieutenant governor post.

A report by Auditor General Robert G. Cronson this week said the Illinois Corrections Department has lost thousands of dollars through "an appalling array of serious problems in fiscal accountability."

A test case against an Illinois law barring adults from possessing marijuana in their homes led to a ruling of constitutionality Tuesday by a Chicago circuit judge. The ban remains in effect despite arguments of privacy rights.

2nd Sr. Citizen Dialogue

Another "Dialogue with Senior Citizens" will be offered during the fall and winter of 1975-76 at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Citizens 55 years of age and older who live in Madison and St. Clair Counties will have an opportunity to participate in the discussion series, which will be similar to the weekly seminars on the SIUE campus last year. Funded by SIUE and a grant from the Illinois Humanities Council, this year's series will be titled, "The Revolution: Old and New." Dialogue with Senior Citizens. "No fees will be charged, and free bus service along selected routes again will be available."

Jules Zanger, professor of English in the SIUE School of Humanities, will direct this year's 24-week program, which will be offered on Wednesday afternoons from 2 to 4 p.m., excluding Nov. 26 and Dec. 24 and 31.

Enrollment will be limited to 20 participants. Prof. Zanger said applications will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis, beginning Friday.

A registration card may be mailed to Prof. Zanger at Box 43, SIUE.

Mrs. Miller dies at 91

Mrs. Julia A. Miller, 91, of 1524 Garfield Ave. died at 9:30 p.m. Wednesday, at St. Elizabeth Hospital, where she was admitted 10 days ago.

Born in Williamson County, Ill., she resided here for 15 years. Mrs. Miller was a member of the Christian Church in Johnston City, Ill.

Her husband, Charles Miller, died in 1949.

She is survived by a nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Garret Miller, who live in Granite City, with whom she made her home.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

$16,000 loss in home fire

An explosion of undetermined cause blew out the front of the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Garret Miller, 4483 Vine St., at 11 p.m. Wednesday, followed by fire that destroyed the dwelling.

A witness passing the house at the time of the explosion told firemen that the house became engulfed in flames immediately after the blast.

Long Lake firemen said the structure was destroyed totally and that damage was estimated at $16,000. Firemen were at the scene two hours.

According to the Madison County Sheriff's Department, two witnesses reported that about five seconds after the explosion they saw a man running away from the home carrying what appeared to be a gasoline can. The man was described as short with long hair and young.

Another witness, who lives near the destroyed home, said he heard the explosion and said he saw a young man walking away from the fire. When he asked the youth what had happened the youth started to run.

WITH MRS. MACARTHUR. General of the Army Douglas MacArthur's widow, Jean, is pictured with Paul Barnett, a member of local veterans Post 51, who as a Navy coxswain landed the general as he completed his "I shall return" pledge in the Philippines during World War II. It was the first meeting of the two. In the background is an oil painting of the general, which was taken at the MacArthur memorial in Norfolk, Va., by Steve Conkovich, Post 51 public relations officer. Mrs. MacArthur has added this and similar photographs to her albums; the albums will be placed in the memorial for public display after her death.

Charged in 3 robberies

A warrant alleging armed robbery has been obtained by Granite City police detectives against Luke Earl Walsh, 25, St. Louis, who is being held in the St. Louis County Jail in lieu of $50,000 bond on other charges. The warrant alleges Walsh was the armed robber who handcuffed two employees of the Reese Drug store in the Tri-Cor Medical Building, 2044 Madison Ave., July 28, and took a quantity of Class 2 narcotics. He was disguised with a nose bridge and makeup, police alleged.

Walsh was arrested Aug. 6 in Ferguson, Mo., after he allegedly used a gun and robbed King's Pharmacy on Church Street in Ferguson and then entered a stolen car. An employee of the pharmacy was found handcuffed.

The St. Louis County prosecuting attorney's office has issued warrants charging him with first degree robbery using a deadly weapon and with motor vehicle theft.

They charge the car he entered was stolen from the parking lot of the National Food Store in Ferguson two blocks away. He used a mustache and goatee during that robbery, it is alleged.

Walsh also is named in an armed robbery warrant from Collinsville where it is charged he was involved in a pharmacy robbery July 30, two days after the Tri-Cor robbery.

Granite City and Collinsville detectives said they discovered that similar methods were used in all three robberies, including a disguise and the use of handcuffs.

A Granite City detective then obtained a photograph of Walsh and mixed it with other photographs. All the photographs were shown Monday to the employees of the Reese Drug Store who were working when the robbery occurred and they selected Walsh's photo from those they were shown, it was alleged.

The Granite City complaint against Walsh was issued Monday to the police. A Granite City detective served him with a copy in the St. Louis County Jail.

Ferguson police were requested to hold Walsh for both the Granite City and Collinsville police departments when they dispose of their charges against him.

Bond has been set at $20,000 for the Granite City robbery, and $20,000 for the Collinsville robbery in addition to the $50,000 bond already set at Ferguson.

Becherer and Ann Langely, 15-17.

A high-point-earner citation was given to Janet Becherer, who achieved 105 points for the team this season.

The annual Homer Johnson sportsmanship award was presented to Gina Delevski and Pat Muehl. The late Homer Johnson officiated at swimming meets here.

Mercer host for twinbill

A fierce battle for the top four positions in Illinois Inter-City Baseball League standings will be waged by participating teams Sunday, with a full slate of doubleheaders on tap, and just three weeks of competition remaining before league playoffs begin.

Competing at contests Sunday are: Highland-Pierson at East Alton Vans, and Panama vs. Mercer's at Wilson Park. Fairfax is idle since its scheduled opponent, Troy, was expelled for posting double forfeits.

League standings are: Highland-Pierson 16-3, Panama 13-9, Vans 13-10, Fairfax 13-12, Mercer 11-13, and Troy 8-22.

Turner wins demolition derby here last night

Bill Turner captured his best event and then emerged victorious over 12 other cars in a feature race, taking top honors last night in a demolition derby held at Tri-City Speedway.

Competition at the local race track now moves to Saturday evening, with late model and sportsman class stock cars competing starting at 7:30 p.m.

Russ Wallace, who has virtually clinched the 1975 late model track title with 3,445 points, will seek to win his ninth feature win of the season. His son, Mike, who leads the

Bowling event raises $3,059 for dystrophy

This past weekend's 48-hour "bowling bee" held at Brunswick Tri-Mor Bowl, 3701 Nameoki Road, "was a success in helping raise funds to fight muscular dystrophy," comments Tony Sodi, manager of the local bowling lanes.

The event, which started at midnight Friday and ended at midnight Sunday, collected $3,059 in donations, a tally showed Tuesday.

Varied games, talent shows, auctions, rides and bowling were provided area residents in exchange for donations, and trophies were presented to bowling game winners. Trophy winners were:

Mr. and Mrs. Del Hamilton, scotch doubles; Dorothy Douglas, Streakers' League; Alan Young, Mixed League; Barbara Clark and Steve Hay, junior bowling bee; and Granite City Fire Department for defeating the Granite City Police Department.

Strength-for-Living Crusade at Baptist Grounds Aug. 24-31

Ed and Bette Stalneckier will bring to Granite City a new type of contemporary evangelism in their Bicentennial "Strength-for-Living Crusade."

The crusade will be held Aug. 24-31 at the Baptist grounds south of I-570 and between Highway 203 and Highway 111 on Engineer Road. Services will begin at 7:30 p.m. daily.

The crusade team includes the Stalneckiers, Rick and Chip (their two sons) and the featured instrumentalists, Joe and Shirley Nichols.

"We are spreading the old-time religion, which is just as contemporary and modern as it was 190 years ago," the Stalneckiers said.

The Stalneckier team travels 50 weeks out of the year in their mobile homes. Their full year's schedule of crusade appearances includes areawide and local church crusades.

Mrs. Stalneckier who turned down a contract to sing for the Metropolitan Opera Company, sings for the deaf as well as for the hearing. She is known throughout the south for her interpretation of music to the deaf. She saw the need in this field and vowed that this segment of her audience would not miss the joy of "hearing" the gospel songs through the sign language, a team spokesman said.

Rick and Chip are as much a part of the team as their parents

Kiwanis may re-district

The district organization of Kiwanis Clubs of the State of Illinois may undergo reorganization in the near future, according to Kiwanis Lieutenant Governor-elect Edward Long of Alton.

Long met informally with the Evening Kiwanis Club at its meeting Monday in Charlie's Restaurant.

Long informed the club that District 13, which now is made up of 14 clubs, probably will be divided into two districts of seven clubs each.

He further reminded the club that on Tuesday, Sept. 9, there will be a district inspirational meeting in Mount Vernon.

Kiwanian Mike Tondas reminded the club that anyone in the area that needs to borrow a wheelchair or crutches may do so by contacting John Kerkovich at 876-2323.

CONTEMPORARY EVANGELISM with a fundamental message will be featured in the "Strength-for-Living Crusade" at the Madison County Baptist grounds, featuring the evangelistic team of Ed and Bette Stalneckier, Aug. 24-31.

Resume classes on Aug. 25, 26

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer
Less than two weeks of summer vacation remained for Quad-City students today as school officials throughout the area prepared for the opening of the new full term in both public and parochial schools on Aug. 25 and 26.

With two exceptions, all area public and parochial schools will initiate the new term on Monday, Aug. 25, with varying schedules of half-day and full-day classes during the first week.

The exceptions are Granite City public schools which will convene the new term with a half-day session on Tuesday, Aug. 26, and begin full-day classes the following day, and St. Elizabeth parochial school which will hold its first session on Tuesday, Aug. 26, with half-day sessions throughout the remainder of the week.

In Madison School District 12, the necessity of split shifts due to overcrowded conditions will result in a varied schedule of opening and closing hours for the first day of school and the regular full-day class periods.

School administrators in Granite City, reflecting a sign of the times in which fewer new teachers are being hired because of declining enrollment, will eliminate the annual orientation breakfast for new teachers this year. Instead, a "brunch" session will be held at the Board of Education offices at 20th and Adams streets Friday, beginning at 8:30 a.m. Officials said that because there are fewer new teachers to attend such an orientation program, available space at the administrative offices will accommodate this year's group of newly-hired teachers.

All faculty members of Granite City schools will attend an all-day workshop at Granite City High School North on Monday, Aug. 25. The workshop will begin at 8 a.m. and continue until 3:30 p.m.

Granite City schools will open Tuesday, Aug. 26, for a half-day session. The half-day program will begin at 8 a.m. and dismiss at noon at all elementary schools. Junior high school classes will convene at 8 a.m. at Coolidge and 8:30 a.m. at Prather and Grigsby, with dismissal at 12:30 p.m. at those three schools.

The two Granite City high schools will convene classes Aug. 25 at 8 a.m. and dismiss at 1 p.m.

Regular hours at Granite City schools during full-day sessions beginning Wednesday, Aug. 27, will be from 8:45 a.m. to 3 p.m. at all elementary schools; 8 a.m. to 3:15 p.m. at Coolidge; 8:30 a.m. to 3:45 p.m. at Prather and Grigsby, and 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at both high schools.

At Madison schools, a half-day session on Monday, Aug. 25, will include two sessions for kindergarten pupils from 9 a.m. until 10 a.m. for one group and from 10 a.m. until 11 a.m. for another. Elementary pupils will attend classes from 8:45 a.m. until 11:30 a.m.

At the junior high school, eighth grade pupils will attend from 7:30 a.m. until 9 a.m. while seventh-grade pupils will attend from 9:15 a.m. until 10:45 a.m. The half-day session for high school students will be from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Full-day sessions beginning Tuesday, Aug. 26, will include two kindergarten classes, one from 9 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. and one from 12:40 p.m. to 3:10 p.m.

Full-day classes for elementary pupils will be from 8:45 a.m. until 3:15 p.m. Eighth grade students in the junior high school will attend in a split shift from 7:30 a.m. until 11:30 a.m., while seventh-grade students will attend from noon until 4 p.m. daily. All high school classes will begin at 8:30 a.m. and dismiss at 3 p.m.

Half-day sessions at Venice schools on Monday, Aug. 25, will begin at 9 a.m. and continue until 12:10 p.m. at the junior high school and high school. Pupils in the kindergarten to third-grade classes will attend from 9:35 a.m. until 11:30 a.m., and pupils of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades will attend from 9:30 a.m. until 11:50 a.m.

Full-day sessions also will begin Tuesday, Aug. 26, at Venice schools, with kindergarten to sixth-grade pupils in classes beginning at 8:30 a.m. Pupils in the kindergarten to third-grade classes will dismiss at 2:45 p.m., and those in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades dismissing at 3:55 p.m.

High school and junior high school classes in Venice will begin Tuesday, Aug. 26, at 8:30 a.m. and dismiss at 3 p.m. attend full-time classes from 8 a.m. until 3:55 p.m. daily.

The school lunch program will be resumed in all of the public schools with the beginning of full-time classes.

St. Elizabeth parochial school will hold its first day of school Tuesday, Aug. 26, with pupils attending from 9 a.m. until noon. That half-day schedule will prevail for the remainder of the week, with full-time classes beginning on Sept. 2, the day after Labor Day.

The other four parochial schools will begin their fall terms on Monday, Aug. 25, with the following schedules:

St. Margaret Mary, first day from 8:45 to 10 a.m.; remainder of week from 8:45 to 11:30 a.m. Full-day classes will begin Sept. 2 from 8:45 a.m. to 3 p.m. daily. Sacred Heart, first day from 8:45 to 10:30 a.m.; remainder of week from 8:45 a.m. to 3 p.m. Full-day classes beginning Sept. 2 from 8:45 a.m. to 3 p.m. St. Mary-St. Mark, first week of classes beginning with 8 a.m. mass; dismissal time indefinite. Full-day classes beginning Sept. 2 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:10 p.m.

St. Joseph, first day from 8:30 to 10 a.m.; remainder of week from 8:30 a.m. to noon. Full-day classes begin Sept. 2 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. daily.

All of the parochial schools will initiate lunch programs on Sept. 2, with exception of St. Joseph which has no lunch program.

Bicyclist hits elderly woman

Mrs. Dorothy Darnell, 61, of 1309 Kirkpatrick Homes, was injured when she was struck by a youngster on a bicycle in Kirkpatrick Homes at 6 p.m. Tuesday.

She was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital with a cut to her head and a four-inch cut to her left leg. Sutures were administered and a series of X-rays was taken before she was transferred to Firmen Desloge Hospital, St. Louis.

The child who struck her was about 9 years-of-age. He left the scene and has not been identified.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD Thurs. Aug. 14, 1975 Page 7 J. H. Cunningham dies

Joseph H. Cunningham, 83, of Glen Carbon, father of Mrs. Oliver (Wanetta) Talley of Granite City, died at 1:30 a.m. Tuesday at the Wood River Township Hospital. He had been hospitalized four days.

He was born in Frontenac, Kan. Mr. Cunningham retired in 1956 from the Wood River Hospital where he had been employed nine years as an orderly.

NEW PROGRAM FOR HAIR LOSS

Frank Moran Shows He ReGrew Hair. He Did Not Have Male Pattern Baldness.

MIDWEST/ERICKSON HAIR CONSULTANT
WILL EXPLAIN HAIR PROBLEMS AT
THE Travelodge, 1200 19th St., Granite City,
Illinois, Saturday, August 16, 1975
HOURS 1 P.M. to 6:30 P.M.

Chicago, Ill., August 14, 1975. Mr. A. C. Erickson will be back in Granite City, Illinois again Saturday, August 16, 1975. Now is the time to act on this great opportunity. Every man and woman now losing hair should take advantage of this FREE CONSULTATION.

GUARANTEED
You will be given a written guarantee on a pro-rated basis from the beginning to the end. Naturally we could not give you such a guarantee if it didn't work.

CAN'T HELP
Male pattern baldness is the cause of a great majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss, for which no method is effective. Midwest/Ericksen Hair Specialists cannot help those who are slick bald after years of gradual hair loss. Yet, if you are not already slick bald, how can you be sure that is actually causing your hair loss? Even if baldness seems to "run in the family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of your hair loss.

Many conditions can cause hair loss. No matter which one is causing your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead you are beyond help. So, if you still have hair on top of your head, and would like to stop hair loss and grow more hair... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late.

FREE CONSULTATION
Just take a few minutes of your time on Saturday, August 16, 1975, and go to the Travelodge, 1200 19th St. in Granite City, Illinois, between 1 p.m. and 6:30 p.m., and ask the Desk Clerk for Mr. A. C. Erickson's room number. There is no charge or obligation... all consultations are private, you will not be embarrassed in any way.

1975 Steeler football team will have a 'tough act to follow'

Granite City High School North's football Steelers began pre-season practice drills Wednesday with a difference.

The North squad is not engaging in the same type of initial drills as utilized by many teams.

"Many coaches start preparing their players for the upcoming season with body contact drills."

"I have found this to be the easiest way to start the season with a lot of injuries because the players' bodies are not conditioned to accept contact."

Coach Tom Wyrostek comments.

Standing with his hands on his hips in the middle of a newly-completed North football field, the head coach pointed to the varsity prospects going through agility exercises.

"This is to develop quickness, mobility, flexibility, movement and muscular structure."

The Steelers began their 1975 preparations with such conditioning drills getting primary emphasis. They will continue with them for three days without pads before becoming fully outfitted for physical contact.

The important thing is to first build their bodies up so that they can take the full brunt of the game, without injuries, and so that some players won't shy away from contact because they might fear injury," he added.

Looking over the new gridiron crop, Wyrostek noted that the team lost through graduation 23 who were on the roster last year.

"We have 13 lettermen out here now, including seven seniors," he related.

The seven returning senior lettermen are Richard Schmidt, Doug Hehl, Jeff Jones, John Nolan, Randall Stevenson, Mike Waddell and David Kwiatkowski.

"We were supposed to have eight seniors back but Jim Woodward moved during the off-season to another school district," Wyrostek said.

Of the 23 seniors who graduated, seven represented North's starting defensive line — Dave Hamilton, Mark Davis, Ed Schmidt, Mark Sprankle, Dale Anderson, Wade Huff and Fred Clay.

The team took pride last season in not allowing its foes to score a touchdown on the ground until the Peoria game in the state playoffs, enroute to an 8-2 regular season record.

"We have the kind of squad now that will not take us long to condition, since most of them kept in shape during the off-season, meaning we can get right down to the nitty-gritty of the sport."

Ten juniors who lettered last year at North and at the Steelers' experience, including Greg Corey and Brian Winfield, who are vying for the starting quarterback job. Corey, 6-4, 165, was a backup last year to Gene Logas.

Is Wyrostek looking forward to having a better season than last?

"Gee, how much more could a coach ask for?" he responded. "We had an 8-2 record and made it to the state playoffs. And one loss, to O'Fallon was by forfeit because we gave it up to play Peoria at state."

Basically, the Steelers' independent grid schedule this fall is the same as last year's, with the exception of changing Bethalto for Belleville Altoft.

The schedule is: Sept. 5 GCHS South at North; Sept. 12 at Collinsville; Sept. 19 at Wood River; Sept. 26 at Roxana; Oct. 4 Brees of Mater Dei here; Oct. 10 East St. Louis Assumption here; Oct. 18 at Belleville Altoft; Oct. 25 at St. Louis DeMet; Oct. 31 at Mattoon; and Nov. 7 O'Fallon here.

Other than the forfeit to O'Fallon, North's only regular season defeat was at the hands of DeMet, 28-25, before the team was eliminated from advancing to the state finals in losing 54-21 to Peoria Central, a game that saw Senior John Scott of North set an Illinois High School Association all-time single game record of receiving three touchdown passes in a state game.

Although South announced its withdrawal in the spring of 1975 from the Southwestern Conference, it has retained basically the same football schedule as last season:

Sept. 5 at GCHS North (Felling Road stadium); Sept. 12 River View Gardens, Mo. here; Sept. 19 Belleville East here; Sept. 27 at Cahokia; Oct. 3 Edwardsville here; Oct. 10 at Collinsville; Oct. 17 at Alton; Oct. 24 Belleville West here; and Nov. 1, East St. Louis here.

Practice drills for the Warriors began yesterday under the leadership of Coach Stan Wojcik.

South last year posted an 8-7 conference record and an 8-9 overall season, including a 41-3 loss to eventual state (biggest) runner-up East St. Louis in a game which enabled the Flyers to clinch the conference championship.

Wojcik believes "things are going to be different this season."

"Mainly due to the attitudes players are displaying, especially the seniors."

South lost 16 of its senior players from 1974 through June 1975 graduation — Quarterback Kirk Champion, Defensive Halfbacks Mark Greenwood and Dave Wilson, Halfbacks Terry Pirtle, Gary Cary, Paul Solberger and Paul Mushill, Guard Cornerback Greg Terrell, Flanker Tom Schooley, Tackles Tom Shipley and Tom

HOT WEATHER ACTIVITY yesterday as the GCHS North Steeler gridiron team held its initial 1975 practice. Water jets in the background aided the grassy surface, and the athletes provided moisture in the form of perspiration as they sought to trim off weight and attain top physical condition.

Confident Warriors to face strong foes

Boyd, Defensive Ends Brian Bunjan, Dave Leet, Stan Meyers and Jim Jackson. "Most of them," Says Wojcik, "have been keeping in shape during the off-season and have been practicing on their own since mid-July."

"If they continue that enthusiasm and good mental attitude, they can hold their own against our opponents."

The Warriors could have, for the first time in two seasons, considerable player depth, reducing the need for starters to play both defense and offense.

Eleven juniors last year who left the team to pursue other interests have indicated to the coaching staff that they will be out before the season starts.

"This could be a big factor as to how well we perform," the football mentor comments.

"You know, when a player has to go both ways — (defense and offense)," he adds, "the physical demands, heat, and other factors soon wear him out. By the end of the third quarter, he's had it."

One of the key ingredients of a team is its quarterback. Bryan Bunjan, one of the prospective signal callers, is among those who has been working out on his own.

Bunjan last year served as a backup quarterback and the squad's place-kicker. He has studied for two years under the coaches and Dave Dombek, who helped lead South to its last winning season two years ago.

"One of the drawbacks we face this season," says Coach Wojcik, "is that we still have a rugged conference-type schedule. An example of our strong opponents is East St. Louis."

"It has graduated nearly its entire team of last season, but Coach Perry has a bottomless barrel of players. He can fill his entire squad with seniors, and if necessary call on the physical education class for 38 more," he notes, only partly in jest.

But the Warriors this season are conceding nothing and hope to surpass the best any of the opposing schools will have to offer enroute to a possible state playoff berth in November as an independent team.

Officers Friendly golf tourney this Saturday

Tee off time Saturday at the second annual Officer Friendly Gusto Golf Tournament will be at 10:30 a.m. at the Arlington Golf Club.

Registrations for the tournament are being made by phoning 451-9780.

An entry fee of $10 is being charged and will cover cost of the trophies and prizes.

Prospective flag football coaches to meet Monday

Individuals wishing to coach flag football teams this fall during the Granite City Park District's program which begins Sept. 13 are to attend an organizational meeting Monday at the Nameoki Recreation Center, Armos and Franklin Avenues, at 7:30 p.m.

Topics of discussion will be implementation of new rules, schedules, key dates and fees for the program.

The park district's program is offered for boys 8-12 years of age and is designed to develop basic skills of passing, blocking, kicking, punting, pass reception and offensive and defensive playing strategy.

Further information can be obtained by calling the park office, 877-3559.

29 in park golf finals on Sunday

Twenty-nine Quad-City area golfers will take to the greens at Arlington Heights Golf Course at 1 p.m. Sunday to conclude the Granite City Park District's fifth annual golf tournament, which began with qualifying rounds this week.

Individuals were given 18 holes to qualify for each of the four flights — championship, A, B and C — and will compete this Sunday for top honors in each assigned flight.

The score a person earns this weekend will be combined with his qualifying score to determine a flight champion. An eight-stroke shootout also is in effect.

Those who qualified this week for final rounds of competition, with flight and score, were:

Championship Flight — Jim Garvin 80, Bill Dodge 78, Dave Knollman 77, Harry Lane 81, Ed Laub 77, Glen Sprankle 82, Glen Sprankle Jr. 82.

A flight — Clarence Aramowitz 83, Joe Barchesky 82, Benny Brown 80, Jay Fedora 84, Joe Fedora 88, Russ Lockridge 88, Pat Schuman 91, Herman Schroeder 87, Monroe Worthen 90 and Wes Zeigler 91.

B flight — Mike Asadorian 94, Frank Carroll 101, Russ Lyons 98, Dave Painter 94, Charles Staicoff 97, Bob Warford 96 and Rich Wade 103.

C flight — Cal Bartels 105, Ken Hiltner 108, Pete Staicoff 107, David Vance 110 and Corey Worthen 112.

Mike Jesse, park recreation director, explained that the qualifying rounds can be compared to heat races in track meets, with the best competing in the final events.

Individual trophies and numerous prizes will be given at the conclusion of the tournament.

Free miniature golf tournament for ages 6 to 16

Granite City Jaycees and Funland are sponsoring a miniature golf tournament from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. Saturday, free to all children between the ages of six and 16.

The event will take place at Funland, 3820 Pontoon Road. Children will compete in the three age groupings: six to nine, 10 to 12, and 13 to 16. There will be trophies for first and second place, plus several other prizes.

Mike Bledsoe is president of the Jaycees.

Retrain water safety teachers

The Tri-City Chapter of the American Red Cross will conduct retraining sessions for currently authorized water safety instructors beginning Tuesday, Aug. 19, at 9 p.m. at the swimming facility located at the Granite City Army Installation, Niedringhaus Avenue and Route 151. There is no charge for the 12-hour session, which will be conducted in four segments.

Pool sessions will take place on Aug. 19 and 21, from 9 p.m. until midnight, and Saturday, Aug. 23, from 9 a.m. until noon.

The classroom session will take place at the Nameoki Recreation Center at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 20.

Retraining has been required of all water safety instructors before Dec. 31, 1976, due to revisions and modifications in Red Cross water safety programs. Interested individuals are to register for the sessions by calling the chapter office at 452-7184.

KIDS WILL WIN THIS ONE. Illustrious Potentate William R. Popkess, Ainaid Temple, seems to be telling Manager Red Schoendienst of the St. Louis baseball Cardinals and Braves Manager Clyde King that no matter who wins the Aug. 23 game, the kids at the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children will get the results of Shriners ticket sales for use in helping them get well. Wayne Banks, far left, assistant administrator of the Ainaid Temple, and ticket chairman Richard Ervay (not shown), Oriental guide of the Ainaid Temple, report that the tickets are moving well, but they "hope that people understand the tickets must be purchased from a Shriners in order that the extra money will go to the hospital." Tickets are $3.50 and there are "plenty," Ervay says.

Ainaid night at stadium Aug. 23

Ainaid Temple, which has a membership of over 8,500 nobles, will attend the Cardinal-Atlanta Braves game on Aug. 23 at Busch Stadium.

For each ticket the Shriners sell, they will receive $1 for the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children. St. Louis unit, through the Ainaid Temple Bonds for Braves program.

Last year nearly $7,000 in government bonds were given to the hospital from the ball game, and this year there is hope it will be even more.

The 36 Shrine clubs located throughout Southern Illinois and the Shrine units all have tickets to sell. They cost $3.50 for the 7 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 23, game.

Ainaid sends more than 200 youngsters a year to the orthopedic hospital from the Southern Illinois area, and nearly one dozen children are cared for each year at the Shriners Burns Institute.

The annual budget of the Shrine Hospitals—19 orthopedic and three burns institutes—runs more than $31 million.

Big Red express bus service here

The Transit Department of the Bi-State Development Agency will operate 11 special Big Red Express bus lines to all St. Louis football Cardinal games at Busch Memorial Stadium, starting with the first pre-season game at Saturday, Aug. 16, with the New York Jets, Robert J. Baer, executive director of the agency, has announced.

"In addition," Baer said, "Bi-State will operate special trips on 11 regular service lines to serve Busch Stadium for football Cardinal home games. These trips will be provided to provide direct-to-the-stadium bus service for areas not served by the special Big Red Express lines."

The lines are: Hodiamoni, Wellston, Page (from Wellston Loop), Cass (from Goodfellow), Lee (from Hall's Ferry Circle), Florissant and Natural Bridge (both from Jennings Sta. Rd. and West Florissant Ave.), Rosemont, Washington Park, Alta-Sita and 26th and Central. Buses from these direct-to-the-stadium trips can be identified by windshield and side front window signs reading "Busch Stadium."

The 11 special Big Red Express routes will serve the Quad-Cities, Alton, Hazelwood, Jennings, Riverview, St. Ann, South Grand, Belleville, Clayton, Crestwood and Hampton.

The local Big Red Express buses will leave from the Namekiki Village Shopping Center and travel on Namekiki Road, Madison Avenue, Broadway, Main Street, McKinley Bridge and then direct to the stadium.

Pickup points will be at bus stops from Namekiki Village Shopping Center 75 minutes before game time and the last bus 60 minutes before game time. Approximate running time from Namekiki to Main and Broadway is 17 minutes.

Regular local rates of fare will apply on the regular service lines.

On the special Big Red Express lines, cash fares will be: Adult 75 cents and child (under 12) 40 cents. Also, the weekly pass is good on Big Red Express upon payment of 25 cents.

No additional zone charges

Midwest women's softball tourney Friday to Sunday

State softball champions and runnerup will begin competition at 7 p.m. tomorrow at Wilson Park in the annual Illinois Amateur Softball Association women's slow-pitch Midwest regional tournament. Participants will include Granite City's Petrillo Produce, which during the weekend captured its third straight state title at Dupu with a 5-4 victory over Kankakee.

The regional meet will conclude with an 8:30 p.m. championship contest on Sunday.

The state meet at Dupu was a week late in reaching its conclusion due to postponement of games because of heavy rains in the area. Going into the final round of competition, Petrillo's had swept all its games in the championship bracket of the double-elimination tourney. It met and defeated the representative of the losers' bracket, Morris Merchants of Kankakee.

Petrillo's has been managed by Marvin Brokaw and coached by Don Detering throughout the team's three-year championship reign.

Other game results were: Oak Grove 25-9 over East St. Louis; Airmen 8-1 over Granite City's Bill's Auto Body; Valmeyer Pacers 8-7 over Centralia; Pacers 3-0 over Fairmont and Hecker 3-0 over Pacers.

Harold Brown, association vice-president and regional manager of the Midwest tournament, hosted by Sam's Tavern, relates that the 19-game double-elimination tourney will involve 10 teams. Entrants will be competing here for the first time since the tournament's inception in 1969.

A Granite City team has emerged as champion every year: Schreiber's in 1969, Mercer in 1970-71, the Rebels in 1972 and Petrillo Produce in 1973-74.

Forest Park was runnerup last year to Petrillo in the meet held at St. Charles, Ill. In addition to Petrillo's, Kankakee and Forest Park, these three are the Chicago metropolitan champion and runnerup, the Milwaukee metropolitan area first and second-place teams, the 1975 Wisconsin state champion and runnerup and the host team.

The team emerging as champion here this weekend will advance to a national slow-pitch tournament, on Labor Day weekend.

The opening schedule here tomorrow is: Sam's Tavern vs. Chicago runnerup at 7 p.m.; Forest Park vs. Morris Merchants at 8:15 p.m. and the Chicago champion vs. Wisconsin runnerup at 9:30 p.m.

Championship bracket competition resumes Saturday with: Petrillo vs. Milwaukee runnerup at 9 a.m.; the winner of Friday's Sam's-Chicago contest vs. Milwaukee champion at 10:15 a.m.; and the

Slip in final lap decides cycle race

"I was home free until my motorcycle slipped in the fourth corner," remarked Millard's Dan Kirkland after Texan Guy McClure powered his mount past the 18-year-old racer to win Tuesday evening's feature race at Tri-City Speedway in an American Motorcycle Association-sanctioned program.

Kirkland, seeking his seventh feature win of the season, came out of the second corner on the first lap, running fourth behind the leader, Phil MacDonald of Oklahoma, and McClure and Texan Terry Poovey.

Two laps later, Kirkland guided his cycle past the leaders and was leading the 12-lap event, with McClure's cycle hugging his back wheel. It appeared to be another likely win, until the Kirkland cycle's front wheel twisted coming out of the corner on the last lap, allowing McClure to sweep past him and take the checkered flag, his third main event victory of the season. Kirkland placed second, and Poovey third.

McClure, Kirkland and Poovey each captured heat races and semi-feature events. Other heat race winners were Charles Smith, Keith Anderson, Jeff Mudlock and Mike Ladd. A consolation race was won by Doug Ahn.

Granite Cityan Glen Falter placed third in the heat race won by Ladd, but failed to make the feature race starting lineup, missing the top three in a semifinal race.

State is monitoring E. St. Louis election

The Illinois Office of Education is completing weeks of planning to insure an orderly election tomorrow of four East St. Louis school board members.

Orientation sessions for election judges and state monitoring agents are being conducted this week by the state.

The special election, which will be under the supervision of state and county agencies, will be held to fill seats vacated when the board president and three other members were convicted May 3 of extortion and racketeering. Thirty candidates are seeking the four vacancies.

Training sessions for persons serving as election judges were held by the Illinois Board of Elections Tuesday and Wednesday night at East St. Louis High School. The Illinois Office of Education scheduled a session for 1 p.m. today at the high school to give instructions to its 82 staff members who will be monitoring voting at each polling place and safeguarding balloting equipment and materials.

Balloting will be conducted between noon and 7 p.m.

Friday. Votes will be tallied at the high school and the results will be announced through an election headquarters at the school.

In addition, according to Richard Small, assistant state superintendent who has been coordinating state education office activities in East St. Louis, law enforcement agencies at the county, state and federal levels have given assurances of their cooperation during the election. Functions of the East St. Louis school board were assumed by the superintendent of the St. Clair County Educational Service Region on May 8 after convictions of the four members and subsequent developments left the seven-member board without a legal quorum.

On June 18, Lester Reuster, regional superintendent at the time, ordered the Aug. 15 election to fill the unexpired terms. He retired as superintendent Aug. 4. The election is now under the auspices of his successor, Martha O'Malley.

In preparing for the election, staff members from the Illinois Office of Education provided technical assistance in such matters as preparing the legal notice of the election, helping determine the number of polling places and meeting with citizen groups. A task force of 10 personnel from the state office also conducted an evaluation of the school district's physical facilities and its business practices.

LT. PETER SCHOCKER
Lt. Schocker earns wings

Lieutenant Peter R. Schocker of Granite City has graduated from the Undergraduate Pilot Training program and awarded his silver pilot's wings at Vance Air Force Base, Enid, Okla.

Lt. Schocker, son of retired U.S. Army Sergeant First Class and Mrs. Melvin Schocker, 2206 Waterman Ave., received 200 hours of flying instructions in T-37 and T-38 aircraft and spent over 300 hours in the classroom pursuing such subjects as instrument flight procedures, applied aerodynamics, aircraft engineering and weather.

Another third of the course was taken up in officer training activities. Each new pilot in the class spent nearly a year of effort to earn his pilot's wings.

Lt. Schocker will begin his career as an Air Force pilot as a T-1 flight instructor at the U.S. Air Force Academy in Colorado where he received his bachelor of science degree and commission in 1974.

He is a 1969 graduate of Granite City High School. His wife, Mona, is the daughter of Col. and Mrs. A. Kirby Taylor of Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio.

Seminars to help students avoid problems

Weekly seminars for the purpose of helping people with problems and emotional upsets are being sponsored by Student Development Services (SDS) at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Dr. Phillip Dennis, staff psychiatrist for SDS, said this week, "The main function of the seminars is to counsel campus and professional groups including staff members, teachers and students, so they can recognize specific problems and administer counseling services to those who need them, especially people with behavioral problems."

"We supply these groups with information, techniques and skills so that they can deal with the emotional, developmental and adjustment difficulties many students experience," the psychiatrist said.

Dr. Dennis hopes that by pulling various student and religious organizations under one "umbrella," each will be aware of what the other is about and be able to use the other's strengths for the common purpose of helping people.

"Presently," he said, "there are only two of us to handle all the students who need help with some sort of difficulty. And meetings with them on a one-to-one basis, we are limited as to the number of students we can serve."

Dr. Dennis continued, "We hope the seminars will allow us to have an out-reaching effect. Each group we counsel can, in turn, counsel many more people, so that indirectly we are able to serve thousands of people."

He emphasized that the overall purpose of SDS is to help students be as efficient as possible without getting bogged down by academic or social problems.

Annual appropriations have led to soaring state costs—Howlett

The switch from biennial to annual appropriations by the General Assembly in 1969 has helped skyrocket the cost of Illinois state government, Michael J. Howlett, secretary of state, said this week.

"Costs of Illinois government are at an all-time high," he said. "They have been rising faster than the cost of living, faster than federal government costs, and faster than the costs of state government generally in the United States."

"The inflation in government costs is the most serious inflation now plaguing the Illinois taxpayer."

"We would be better off returning to biennial appropriations. The legislature could use the off-year sessions to consider other bills," he commented.

"We are spending more money for a legislature which spends more time on more bills which appropriate more money than the taxpayers can afford to pay," Howlett asserted.

"Every time we open the door for a new legislative appropriation session, we give every pressure group in the state a new chance to 'put the heat' on every legislator. No criticism of any individual is intended here. All in state government are victims of the system—the General Assembly, the governor and other state officers.

"From the 1959-1961 biennium to the 1973-75 biennium, appropriations to the General Fund, the housekeeping fund of Illinois government, rose 530 per cent, from less than $1½ billion to more than $6 billion.

"From 1960 to 1974, roughly the same period, the national inflation, measured by the Consumers Price Index, was 66 per cent.

"Operating costs of Illinois government rose more than eight times as fast as the general inflation.

"Illinois state government spending has risen much faster than federal spending. While our Illinois total appropriations for all purposes went up 457 per cent in the eight biennia just ended, budgeted outlays of the federal government rose 206 per cent.

"The big jump has occurred since we switched to annual appropriations.

"General Fund appropriations rose from under $1½ billion in 1960-1961 to over $3½ billion in 1969-1970.

"But with the annual appropriations we really climbed—to $5.9 billion in 1969-1971, to $7.7 billion for 1971-1973 and up over $9½ billion in 1973-1975.

"With annual sessions, our General Fund appropriations have more than doubled. They have risen 145 per cent in the last three biennia. Meanwhile, the national inflation in consumer prices was 54 per cent from 1960 to 1974.

"In the fiscal year ended June 30, 1975, we spent $613 million more from the General Fund than in the year before. We spent $136 million more than the fund took in.

"The cost of supporting the legislature is rocketing into outer space.

"In the last five biennia under two-year budgeting, the appropriation to the General Assembly rose from $6½ million to $21 million. But it took only three more biennia of annual sessions to hoist the cost to $28½ million," Howlett continued.

"Some of our most capable legislators have dropped out of public service because they can't afford the time and frustration of what has become virtually a full-time job.

"If the Assembly would appropriate for two years in the first six months of its two-year life, it could shorten the next year's session to act on other matters, saving legislators' time and taxpayers' money."

"Since 1969, for the first time in Illinois history, we have had a Bureau of the Budget to review budget requests of each agency and give the governor a professional fiscal analysis."

"It should be able to allocate appropriated money over a 24-month period.

"Special sessions, with restricted agenda, could be initiated by the governor and legislative leadership if emergencies came up."

"A return to biennial appropriation would not be a cure-all. There is no automatic solution, no easy solution."

"To make any system work, we would need bipartisan cooperation, with leaders of government working together—regardless of party—for the common good of Illinois' people."

Steal, loot car

A 1974 auto belonging to William E. Hopkins, 43, Kaseberg Park, was recovered by police at 2808 Birch Ave. shortly after it was reported to be missing from the Farm Fresh Dairy parking lot at 2928 Nameoki Road.

Hopkins told police he had left the car keys in the trunk look after removing an item to deliver to the store, and upon his return five minutes later his car was gone. Two sports coats, valued at $17 each, were taken. One coat later was recovered by Pontoon Beach police on Lake Drive.

Debate street

Madison has contended Farish Street was not annexed properly by the city when it annexed the Madison High School property, and therefore is in the jurisdiction of the township's highway department, rather than in the area served by the Madison Street Department.

The result has been a two-year argument between the city and the township, during which the section of Farish Street in question has decayed to the point, "You could grow goldfish in the holes in the street," according to one East Madison resident who addressed the Nameoki Town Board Monday night.

The disagreement has spread to other areas, including who is responsible for providing fire protection in East Madison. It is to pay for school crossing guards at McCambridge Avenue, who is responsible for the maintenance of the street lights at Sixth Street and McCambridge Avenue, and other questions.

Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk last week sent letters to Whittell and Madison Superintendent of Schools John Palchek, saying that the crossing lights could no longer be maintained by the city, since it is used almost exclusively by Nameoki Township residents. He suggested Palchek meet with township officials to determine who is responsible for maintaining the lights.

Nameoki Township Supervisor Louis Whittell called Monday night's meeting and Sasyk has ordered the crossing lights at Sixth Street and McCambridge Avenue disconnected only as a matter of this Thursday and resolving the traffic signal problem is first on his agenda.

Ordinances establishing four-way stops at the intersections of Eighth Street and Washington Avenue and Greenwood and Plum streets were enacted by the council. Third Ward Alderman Ronald Grzywacz and Ray Kozielec were prepared.

Michael Markovich who is planning to start a new ambulance service to serve the residents of Madison and Venice outlined his plans to the council.

Alderman Kozielec expressed concern over what he believes are excessive speeds now traveled by ambulances serving the area. Markovich assured the council that his ambulance would always drive at a reasonable speed.

Markovich emphasized his service would be primarily for the M-V area and that he hoped to be in some efforts to be instituted before Oct. 1.

The council approved a request from Fifth Ward Alderman Donald Garrett to install a street light at the west end of the alley between W. Madison Street and Jefferson near the railroad tracks and in the alley of the 1800 block between Fifth and Sixth streets.

Fourth Ward Alderman Mike Sikora said, "I would like someone to look into a truck stop at 1010 State St. This is a real health problem and something should be done to get it straightened out."

Alderman Grzywacz commented that the weeds at 901 Alton Ave. were five feet high or more, and there is an odor problem that should be investigated.

First Ward Alderman Paul Ashford presided at the meeting in the absence of Mayor Sasyk.

The effect of the action, however, probably would have been only to force the county superintendent of highways to study the issue and make a determination whether the road is within the city of Madison, the attorney told those present.

Three East Madison residents present at the meeting agreed to sign a petition requesting Bell to do the work. Rung said he would prepare the necessary petition immediately after the meeting and the residents could sign it.

The petitions were prepared Tuesday morning, addressed to both Bell and the county superintendent of highways, and were obtained at noon Tuesday by Charles Hamilton, a resident of East Madison, who said he would obtain the necessary signatures.

The petitions were to be returned to the Nameoki Town Hall Wednesday, but Bell announced that the petitions were returned, that he would make the necessary repairs "this time."

The issue is expected to be discussed further at the town board's next meeting 7 p.m. Monday, Aug. 26, in the town hall at 4250 Highway 162.

Child, 17 months, found dead

Cory Lee Edwards, 17 months old, the son of Randy and Winona Edwards, 2122 Bryan Ave., was found without signs of life at his grandparents' home near Edwardsville about 11:30 p.m. Monday. The child was brought by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was pronounced dead upon arrival at 11:56 p.m.

The cause of death is not known and an inquiry is to be held. The child had been under a doctor's care for a stomach disorder and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Rogers, Rural Route 7, Box 180, Edwardsville, said he had been running a fever and vomiting earlier in the evening.

His grandmother said she found the boy without signs of life and said he was cold. She was alone at the time.

highways and the state highway engineers.

"You realize, of course, that Nameoki Township has no authority to make any expenditures of motor fuel tax monies without the above authorization."

"We are looking forward to participation with the city of Madison in alleviating the dangerous crossing situation that now exists on McCambridge."

The cost of installing the signal was $13,583 and general maintenance and related costs have ranged between $2,500 and $3,000 to the city. The township to date has paid nothing toward the installation or maintenance.

Second Ward Alderman Richard Kismar said, "We will be meeting with the township officials again and I hope we can get a favorable response."

Belleoff reported that Mayor Sasyk has paid nothing toward the Thursday and resolving the traffic signal problem is first on his agenda.

Ordinances establishing four-way stops at the intersections of Eighth Street and Washington Avenue and Greenwood and Plum streets were enacted by the council. Third Ward Alderman Ronald Grzywacz and Ray Kozielec were prepared.

Michael Markovich who is planning to start a new ambulance service to serve the residents of Madison and Venice outlined his plans to the council.

Alderman Kozielec expressed concern over what he believes are excessive speeds now traveled by ambulances serving the area. Markovich assured the council that his ambulance would always drive at a reasonable speed.

Markovich emphasized his service would be primarily for the M-V area and that he hoped to be in some efforts to be instituted before Oct. 1.

The council approved a request from Fifth Ward Alderman Donald Garrett to install a street light at the west end of the alley between W. Madison Street and Jefferson near the railroad tracks and in the alley of the 1800 block between Fifth and Sixth streets.

Fourth Ward Alderman Mike Sikora said, "I would like someone to look into a truck stop at 1010 State St. This is a real health problem and something should be done to get it straightened out."

Alderman Grzywacz commented that the weeds at 901 Alton Ave. were five feet high or more, and there is an odor problem that should be investigated.

First Ward Alderman Paul Ashford presided at the meeting in the absence of Mayor Sasyk.

The effect of the action, however, probably would have been only to force the county superintendent of highways to study the issue and make a determination whether the road is within the city of Madison, the attorney told those present.

Three East Madison residents present at the meeting agreed to sign a petition requesting Bell to do the work. Rung said he would prepare the necessary petition immediately after the meeting and the residents could sign it.

The petitions were prepared Tuesday morning, addressed to both Bell and the county superintendent of highways, and were obtained at noon Tuesday by Charles Hamilton, a resident of East Madison, who said he would obtain the necessary signatures.

The petitions were to be returned to the Nameoki Town Hall Wednesday, but Bell announced that the petitions were returned, that he would make the necessary repairs "this time."

The issue is expected to be discussed further at the town board's next meeting 7 p.m. Monday, Aug. 26, in the town hall at 4250 Highway 162.

Infant found dead in swing

Phillip James Vincent Jankowski, 6 months old, the son of Kenneth and Rosemary Jankowski, was declared dead in the emergency room of St. Elizabeth Hospital at 6:40 a.m. Tuesday after his parents found him without signs of life in an infant swing at 2417 Edison Ave.

The mother said she had fed the baby about 3 a.m. and put him in the swing because he was cutting teeth and was having a difficult time sleeping in his crib.

When the parents awoke at about 6:30 a.m., they found the baby slumped over in the swing and not breathing. Authorities suspect the child may have fallen forward on the swing and been unable to get back up.

Professions

After serving four years in the U.S. Navy, he began the practice of law in Granite City in 1950 in association with Roscoe Forth. This association later became the partnership known as Forth and Dailey.

Following the death of Roscoe Forth in 1958, Dailey practiced under his own name for several years before going into partnership with Alan Walker. He and Walker have offices in the State Loan and Savings Building, 201 N. Third St., St. Louis.

Dailey has been active in civic projects, having served on the board of directors of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce and on Chamber committees, as well as on boards of the American Red Cross, Boy Scouts of America and Edwardsville YMCA.

He is presently a member of the Optimist Club and is on the board of directors of State Loan and Savings Association and also Abstracts and Title Insurance Co. of St. Louis.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Bicentennial group named by county

Nelson Hagnauer, chairman of the Madison County Board, announced today his appointment of the Madison County Bicentennial Commission. The following citizens were appointed:

Louis Whittell—Nameoki Township; Wayne Bridgewater—Wood River Township; Tony Lester—Meyer-Alton Township; Winnie Sasyk—Venice Township; Kenneth Evers—Edwardsville Township; Marilyn Wood—Granite City Township; Gaynelle Hartbarger—Chouteau Township; Dorothy Nichol—Godfrey Township; Margaret Lee—Venice Township; Don Hendrick—Collinsville Township; Joan Calhoun—Granite City Township; Irene Mindrup—Edwardsville Township; Doris Brendel—Jarvis Township; and Les Prehn—Wood River Township.

The purpose of the Bicentennial Commission will be to coordinate all efforts made by the county in connection with the celebration of the Nation's 200th anniversary.

Hospital cost here is below state average

According to newly published information by Chicago Blue Cross, the average hospital stay of a patient in the state of Illinois is 8.08 days. The average cost per patient day is $146.62 and the average cost per patient for his hospitalization is $1,184.65.

St. Elizabeth Hospital's most recent statistics indicate the average patient stay at the local hospital is 6.38 days, a spokesman said today.

Average cost per patient here is $127.48 a day and the total average cost per patient is $812.68 in Granite City.

Embajadora judging Sunday

Candidates seeking the title of "Embajadora," or good will ambassador, will be judged at the Venice Recreation Center, 385 Broadway, Venice, Sunday beginning at 2 p.m. The public is invited and admission is free.

The "Embajadora" will represent the city at various social and cultural events during "Mexico Week," a special week-long celebration to take place Sept. 14 through Sept. 21 and include public and official functions under the sponsorship of the Mexican-American Cultural Commission of Metro St. Louis.

Top prize will be an all-expense-paid trip to Mexico City given by Mexicana Airlines and the commission. Along with an appointed chaperone, the Embajadora will stay at the Hotel Del Prado for five nights; breakfast will be served at the hotel.

for administration, up $150 from last year's appropriation of $500. Legal protection rose from $400 to $1,500 as Irvin C. Slate Jr. was hired and he was devoting more time to legal problems relating to the district's debt and operations.

"Although the fire department really trimmed the fat from its budget," according to the district's president, Harold Jankowski, the fire department was increased $4,000, from $45,000 in the last budget to $49,000 in the new budget.

The salary fund increased $975 as the trustees salaries were upped from $600 to $1,500, and the amount appropriated for conventions in the same fund was increased from $375 to $450, a $75 jump.

Equipment purchases were budgeted at $19,000 in the last budget and increased to $20,000 in the proposed document. Last year's $3,000 appropriation from tax funds for fire plugs was increased to $10,000 in the new budget, but the money is to come from revenue sharing this year.

The amount appropriated for contingencies was increased from $350 to $550 this year. While no warrants had to be paid off last year, a $300 entry has been made in the new budget to pay the outstanding warrants.

The appropriation for contingencies is $2,000, the same as last year, while the amount budgeted to pay bonds obligated to the fire department by contract increased from $10,000 in the 1974-75 budget to $15,000 in the new document.

There was no audit fund last year, but $500 was appropriated in the new budget for a special audit.

Expect record enrollment at Illinois State

Illinois State University, Bloomington-Normal, with new programs and a potentially record enrollment, will enter its 118th year of operation with the start of classes for the fall semester Aug. 25.

President Gene A. Budig, in his third year as chief executive at ISU, will outline the University's gains during his annual State of the University address Sept. 16.

In commenting on the opening of the new term, Dr. Budig says, "Illinois State is moving into new career programs which will help to insure the institution's major role in higher education." A national study lists ISU among the leaders in the initiation of new programs in the past year, including three new doctoral degrees.

At a time when many institutions are experiencing enrollment problems, Illinois State may set a new on-campus record in excess of 18,000. Off-campus courses are expected to enroll close to 2,500, which would boost total enrollment to a record of nearly 21,000. Residence halls are full and have a waiting list.

The university continues to experience increases in older adult students, as it adds to the number of night courses being offered, particularly within the College of Business. Even with additional faculty in business, it has not been possible to keep up with the demand, much of which is coming from people employed in the area on a full-time basis.

New undergraduate programs being offered for the first time this year are majors in agribusiness, anthropology, environmental health and office administration. Also new is a minor in legal studies.

Graduate programs being inaugurated this year are three doctor of arts degrees—in economics, history and mathematics, and master's degrees in accounting and in business administration.

Twelve persons will be in major new administrative roles at Illinois State with the start of the fall term. In most cases, they have assumed their new duties during the summer.

Dr. Jack Horner is the new vice president and provost, coming to ISU from the University of Alabama at Huntsville.

Man attempts abduction

A Granite City young woman told police she was walking at Jill and Davis avenues at 10:35 p.m. Tuesday and a man attempted to abduct her.

She said the man stopped his car beside where she was walking and asked her for directions. She said he then asked if she knew a girl named Carol, and she said she did not. The man asked her to come to the side of his car to see if she could identify a photograph of the girl named Carol and when she approached the car, she said the man grabbed her arm and attempted to pull her into the car.

She told authorities she threw a soft drink on the man's face and broke free. She then ran home.

She described the man as 25 to 30 years-of-age, husky, having dark blond hair and wearing a black belt. He drove an orange Volkswagen with a black interior.

Mexican youth group formed

A newly-organized youth group known as the Mexican Honorary Youth Group, a branch of the Mexican Honorary Commission, held its first meeting this week at the Commission Hall, 1801 Spruce St.

Johnny Valencia will serve as the commission chairman, assisted by Rufus Valencia, Ruby Ybarra and Hector Mendoza. Misses Lisa and Gloria Garcia were named as youth advisors.

The chairman reports the club has been formed to promote youth of today in sports, leadership, programs and social activities. Membership is open to any resident from 13 to 18 years of age, he added.

Anyone interested in more information are advised to call Johnny Valencia at 931-5742, Lisa Garcia at 877-0280 or Gloria Garcia at 876-1492.

Plans were made to hold meetings on the last Sunday of each month at the Mexican Honorary Commission Hall on Spruce at 1 p.m.

An election of officers for the ensuing year will be conducted at the Aug. 24 session, the advisors reported.

Publication on home purchase tax credits

A free publication containing information about a tax credit for new home buyers is now available at all Internal Revenue Service offices.

The Tax Reduction Act of 1975 enacted on March 29, 1975, provided for a tax credit against federal income tax of five percent of the purchase price of a new home up to a maximum credit of $2,000.

But, on June 30, 1975, two significant changes were made to the Act in the area of the tax credit for purchase of a new principal residence.

The first change dealt with the requirement that the seller must certify that "the purchase price is the lowest at which the residence was ever offered for sale." The change provides that the purchase price must be the lowest at which the residence was offered for sale after Feb. 28, 1975.

The second change now provides that the seller's written certification may be in any form, as long as it is signed by the seller and contains the required information on purchase price and date of beginning of construction.

Provisions of the new law are to be applied retroactively. Taxpayers who purchased residences that did not qualify because of the lower price provisions are being asked to check with the seller to determine whether the residences now qualify and, if so, should obtain the necessary certification.

Individuals wishing to obtain a copy of Publication 590 may do so by calling the IRS toll-free number, 800-252-2821, any work day Monday through Friday, between 8 a.m. and 4:45 p.m., or by visiting one of the IRS offices.

Lankford home burglarized

Loretta Lankford, 2027 Bryan Ave., reported at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday that her home was broken into and ransacked.

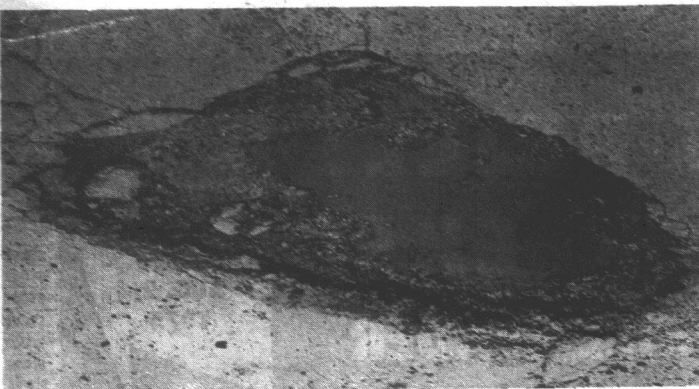

She said a radio, an undetermined quantity of cash, a BB gun, two pistols, a quantity of canned goods, some coin collections, two yearbook collections, a jewelry box and a quantity of jewelry were stolen.

Entry was gained by opening a window on the south side of the porch. An earlier attempt to enter by removing a screen on the kitchen window was unsuccessful. Numerous drawers and closets were ransacked and searched.

Neighbors reported that a yellow pickup truck with a camper shell on the rear was seen parked in front of the house about 10 p.m. Monday.

RADIO RECOVERED

Madison Police recovered a Citizen Band radio which was reported stolen in this area last week from the auto of Robert Dunscomb, Edwardsville, while the vehicle was parked in a lot at 23rd Street and Grand Avenue.

"YOU COULD GROW GOLDFISH in the chuck holes in Farish Street," one East Madison resident told the Nameoki Town Board of Auditors Monday night in appealing for an end to the stalemate between the township and the city of Madison as to who is responsible for repairing the street. Shown is just one of the many chuck holes between Fifth and Sixth streets.

Garden tour at twilight

A twilight garden tour is scheduled for Tuesday, Aug. 19, at a demonstration garden located at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The tour will begin at 6:30 p.m., with small groups touring the garden plots.

To locate the demonstration garden site, residents are advised to go west out of Edwardsville on Old St. Louis Road and turn south on Bluff Road. The garden is one mile down Bluff Road on the west side near the soccer field.

The demonstration garden is a joint effort between SIUE and the University of Illinois. Marion Kumer, SIUE biology professor, was instrumental in getting the garden planted and caring for it.

Chris Doll, U. of Illinois area adviser in horticulture, was instrumental in planning the garden plot. Doll will be present at the twilight tour to help answer homeowner gardening questions.

Others involved with the tour include Marion Kumer, Dale Law, Ron Cornwell and area vegetable growers.

4 arrests on campus

Charges have been filed by security officers at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville against two men who were arrested this week at the Outdoor Performing Arts Facility on campus.

Frederick M. Herich, 18, Decatur, was charged with unlawful possession of PCP, an animal tranquilizer, and unlawful possession of marijuana, both felonies. He also was charged with resisting a peace officer.

Terry L. Scott, 21, Wood River, faces a charge of unlawful possession of marijuana, a felony.

Both were held in Madison County Jail pending court appearances.

Two persons have been charged with theft of gasoline from a vehicle this week on the SIUE campus at Edwardsville. David W. Martin, 17, Edwardsville, Route Six, and a juvenile companion are charged with petty theft. They were released with notices to appear in court.

Security officers said they impounded Martin's 1963 car and its contents, pending further investigation. The vehicle contained four stereo speakers, a cassette tape player, four 8-track tape players, a case of 36 tapes and a large box of tools.

TOOL THEFT

Assorted tools valued at $150 in a black and red box, were reported taken last week from the auto of Stanley Parker, 707 Kirkpatrick Homes. Entry was gained by lifting a vent window lock.

5 return from summer high school music camp

Robin Robertson, 2336 O'Hare Ave., Carol Potillo, 2445 Illinois Ave., Anita Black, 2110 Troy Ave., Madison, Mary Juhász, 10 Frontenac, and Mary Dollins, 3224 Erin Drive, were among the 138 teenage musicians who attended the 1975 Summer High School Music Camp at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale. Although primarily for band, orchestra and chorus, classes were also held in string instruments, piano, music appreciation, theory, conducting, the history of jazz, and class instruction in voice.

A jazz band, a swing choir and a string orchestra were organized. A variety show was presented by the students, and a final concert featured a 72-piece band, 66-piece orchestra and 121-voice chorus.

Camp Director Melvin Siener, associate professor of music, was assisted by Arthur Schmittler, music director at Nashville High School.

Guest conductors were John Swoboda of Downers Grove, strings; Ernest Simpson of Jonesboro, Ark., band; and Robert Fuller, also of Jonesboro, chorus.

Counselors were teachers Curt Burkow of Harrisburg, Phyllis Danner of Sullivan, Phil Eigenmann of Marion, JoAnn Holley of Metropolis, Deanna Sauerbrunn of Hopeston, Richard Shoulters of Robinson and Mary Bolter of Freeburg.

Rites held for Wallace infant

Graveside services were held Saturday at St. John United Church of Christ for the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Joe (Barbara) Wallace, 1939 Grand Ave., who died Friday at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Other survivors include paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis L. Wallace of Granite City, paternal great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wallace, Macon, Ga., and great-grandmother, Mrs. Lockett Thomason, Granite City.

Variance plea hearings are set next week

The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency will hold public hearings Monday and Tuesday, beginning at 10 a.m. each day, on a request by Granite City Steel for a variance in the time requirements for meeting the agency's water pollution maximum allowances.

A spokesman for the steel company said the hearing, described as "routine," will deal only with the company's request for a variance to allow time for the company to meet the maximum allowable level of .05 milligrams per liter of phosphorus in the water discharged from the local plant. The original variance request had included requests for iron and ammonia exemptions, but the spokesman said technology has been developed and placed into operation which now brings the company into compliance with the iron and ammonia requirements.

The hearing is to be held in the Alton City Hall.

Funds for public health services

For the first time this year, Congress has overridden a Presidential veto, voting 384-43 in the House and 87-15 in the Senate to enact the Health Services and Nurse Training Bill, S. 66, now Public Law 94-63.

The law authorizes $1.42 billion for fiscal years 1976 and 1977. It provides for the extension of programs that expired June 30, 1974, but have since been funded under a continuing resolution.

Included in the law are formula grants to states for public health services programs, family planning, community health centers in medically underserved rural and inner-city areas.

In addition, $583 million is authorized for nurse training programs and $30 million in 1975-76 for the National Health Service Corps.

Ninety-six per cent of the funds authorized are for the continuation of existing programs.

Four per cent is scheduled for new programs.

New programs included under the legislation are:

1. A home health service program to find innovative and creative ways to bring health care to the elderly in their homes rather than forcing them to seek institutional care.

2. A National Center for the Prevention and Control of Rape to study the medical, legal and social aspects of rape and serve as a clearinghouse for information.

3. Commissions to study and recommend a policy for the care and treatment of the mentally ill aged; also plans for the control of epilepsy and Huntington's disease, a degenerative disorder of the nervous system.

4. Centers for the treatment of hemophilia, a blood disorder, and development of blood separation centers so as to make blood clotting components available to hemophiliacs.

Continuing programs include:

—The National Health Service Corps, which supplies doctors to rural and inner-city areas that lack such manpower. A one-time grant up to $25,000 is authorized to help medically underserved communities set up a practice for a member of the corps.

—Nurse training programs, including grants and loans for construction or renovation of nursing facilities, annual personal ("capitation") grants for increasing schools' enrollments, federal loans and scholarships to nursing students, and traineeships for nurses entering teaching, administrative or advisory fields.

—Grants to states for support of public health services and the detection, prevention and treatment of hypertension (high blood pressure).

—Community mental health centers, community health centers and migrant health centers, providing diagnostic and preventive health services, as well as emergency and specialized treatment.

The programs included in PL 94-63 are described by Congress as "important to the well-being of many of our citizens, forming the backbone of the federal government's efforts to improve the general health of the population."

Youths steal 100 gallons of ice cream

Four young men were seen loading ice cream from a trailer at the rear of Walgreen's in the Crossroads Plaza Shopping Center by a store official who called police at 7:10 p.m. Tuesday.

The youths left in a green 1969 Dodge hardtop before police arrived. Officers found the lock and latch on the truck door had been removed using a screwdriver and 90 to 100 gallons of ice cream had been stolen.

House panel probing scope of spy program

By LESTER BELL
Press-Record
Washington Bureau

If the House Select Committee on Intelligence, as some believe, is heading toward a showdown with the Ford administration, Rep. Robert McClell of Illinois is unperturbed by the prospect.

The 13th District congressman is ranking Republican on the committee, which voted unanimously last week to subpoena two documents—the secret White House directive that created the National Security Agency (NSA) in 1952 and a 1970 study of Pentagon intelligence capabilities.

Chairman Otis G. Pike, a New York Democrat, whose tenacious questioning during the Pueblo inquiry brought him national attention, and McClell both exhibited annoyance and frustration when Albert C. Hall, assistant secretary of defense for intelligence, told them he had not brought the requested NSA directive.

Pike said dryly that Hall was singing an old refrain: "We want to cooperate with you; we want to give you all the information you need—and yet we can't get the documents."

"It would be most unfortunate," McClell observed, "if even the appearance of refusal to cooperate with this committee was given."

Discussing the subpoena vote later, McClell said in an interview that, as a lawyer, he concludes that "nothing embarrasses me about the subpoena."

McClell figures it will keep the intelligence agents honest. "While we issued the subpoena for the NSA directive, we didn't have to. But I didn't see anything wrong. In fact, it is sort of protection for the agency to turn over the material under subpoena."

McClell is satisfied with the progress of the restructured committee under Pike, his new chairman. "I don't want to go overboard about it," he said. "Pike's determined. He runs the committee as a firm and hard taskmaster. He deals with both sides equitably. When a Democrat gets out of line, he'll quash him as well as a Republican."

McClell believes Director William Colby of the Central Intelligence Agency has been "candid, cooperative and forthcoming" in his committee testimony.

"I feel we are getting all the information we are after,"

McClell sees a change of attitude among Democrats on the committee, who had objected early to going into closed session to hear classified information.

He says they realize that they "are getting more information now in the executive session," and are willing to vote to ban the public and press on occasion.

"That's our job, really—to get to the bottom of this."

The committee has been "working almost entirely" on learning how much U.S. intelligence operations cost the taxpayers.

These budget figures are concealed and distributed in such a manner that it is regarded as impossible to get a comprehensive public view.

"The costs are more than agencies are willing to admit," says McClell. "There may be some disagreement as to the total, but we will have all the numbers."

"Then it will be a matter of judgment as to what should be allocated for intelligence or for other purposes."

McClell said an example of this fuzzy area is a reconnaissance plane. It can be used either as an "intelligence-gathering mechanism" or for national defense in "pioneering targets." Where should the cost lie?

McClell is not convinced yet of a public need to know the cost of the U.S. intelligence operation, and the committee itself remains undecided.

He is certain, however, that a "cost breakdown by projects would be wrong."

"You can't publish the amount spent on spying on the Soviets without interfering with the operation," he says.

TAVERN BURGLARIZED

About $300 was stolen from a glass on the counter at Craycraft Tavern, 2002 Missouri Ave., during a burglary discovered Monday. The lock on the cigarette machine also was broken and an undetermined amount of change stolen. An inventory was taken to determine what was stolen.

Lurton comptroller of aerospace map center

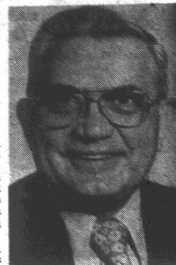

Edward D. Lurton, 1638 Venice Ave., Granite City, a 28-year veteran of service to the Defense Mapping Agency Aerospace Center, St. Louis, has been named to the position of comptroller of the organization.

Lurton has served as chief of the Programs-Budget Division of the Comptroller's Office for the past 14 years.

His federal career began with his induction into the U.S. Navy in October 1942. He was assigned to an LST landing vessel and served in North Africa and England. He was discharged in March 1946 as a chief petty officer.

Shortly after the discharge, he joined the Veterans Administration and served as civilian payroll supervisor for three years.

In addition to his official duties with the Aerospace Center, Lurton also serves as president of the Arsenal Credit

EDWARD D. LURTON

Union, a position he has held since 1958.

He and his wife, Mary, have two daughters.

Lady bugs welcome addition to Illinois

"Lady bug, lady bug, fly to your new Illinois home" is the plea of entomologists to a new insect predator just released in central Illinois.

About 4,500 imported ladybird beetles were released into corn and alfalfa fields on Agricultural Experiment Station farms at Urbana by entomologists Clarence White and William Luckmann of the Illinois Natural History Survey.

The larva and adult stages of this ladybird beetle, known as Coccinella septempunctata, and more commonly known as the lady bug, feed primarily on aphids.

According to Dr. Luckmann, "If the beetle is able to live in Illinois, it will aid in controlling aphids that attack agricultural and ornamental crops."

The beetles will be carefully monitored during late summer, fall, and winter for dispersal and establishment of permanent populations in Illinois.

This beneficial insect is found throughout Europe, and natural colonies of the beetle were discovered living near Bergen, N.J., in 1974.

Plans were initiated last fall for collecting the beetle, which Clarence White did this month, and releasing it in Illinois in 1975.

Load limit on Washington

Council members approved an ordinance creating a five-ton load limit in the 2000 and 2100 blocks of Washington Avenue, and authorized City Clerk Robert Stevens to call bids on salt, asphalt, rock and chips for the street department.

Stevens and City Engineer Monroe Brewer explained, however, that this action was taken in cooperation with the Illinois Department of Transportation which sets up specifications and bidding practices for such supplies.

Robert Jackson, superintendent of the sewage treatment plant, notified the council that Granite City will host the quarterly meeting of MISA (Mississippi-Kaskaskia Water Pollution Control Association) at the Officers Club at the Granite City Army Installation on Tuesday, Aug. 19.

The association is made up of treatment plant operators of 13 counties. Environmental Protection Agency officials are to attend and Mayor Schuler will deliver the welcoming address. Jackson said in inviting council members to attend the event.

Naturally Perfect ... Brown Rice

Brown rice is whole-grain rice from which only the hull and a small amount of the bran has been removed. Nutlike in flavor and chewy of texture, it needs more water and longer cooking time than white rice. Brown rice is easy to cook—you can boil, steam, oven-cook, or fry it. 1 cup of raw brown rice gives you 3 cups of cooked rice.

To keep most of the B-vitamins in the cooked rice, don't rinse it before or after cooking. Follow package directions carefully and use just enough water. Don't stir rice after it comes to a boil; this mashes the rice and makes it gummy. Add a tablespoon of oil to cooking water before adding rice to keep the grains of rice separate.

To test the doneness of rice, use the back of a spoon and press cooked rice kernels against the side of pan. When kernels are soft throughout the rice is ready.

FIRST GRADUATING CLASS of the School of Dental Medicine of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville receives doctor of dental medicine degrees in commencement ceremonies during the weekend in the Communications Building theater. The 19 members of the class who were present are standing in the first two rows. Behind them are members of the Dental School faculty. The 20th member of the class, Karl T. Wagenknecht of Streator, has reported for duty with the Public Health Service in Seattle, Wash. Eleven of the new dentists have announced plans to enter private practice in Downstate Illinois, including three in Granite City. Six of the graduates have military commitments with the U.S. Army.

Bees, wasps tough customers

By WAYNE B. SIEFERT
Lawn and Garden Adviser
Bees and wasps in shrubbery are tough customers unless you treat at night and use a fast knock-down material.
Bees and wasps often build paperlike nests under eaves or in shrubs and protected places. Disturbing the nest during the daytime can cause you or your family to be stung or harassed for several days.
Treat the nest at night by squirting a blast of carbaryl, dieldrin, or malathion into the nest. Thoroughly wet the outside of the nest and nearby twigs. Dust combinations are equally effective.

If none of these are in your home pesticide arsenal, you can get a Wasp and Hornet aerosol bomb at local garden stores. These bombs shoot a stream of material for several feet. A combination of knock-down and knock-out materials in these bombs make them a handy addition to your pesticide supplies.
Yellow jackets often build their nest underground. Their temperamental nature requires extreme care during the daytime. Treat the underground nest with carbaryl. Promptly plug the opening with soil after treatment.

Homecoming play auditions set

Auditions for the Granite City High School South Homecoming play, "Bloomer Girl," will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 19, at South auditorium, according to Richard King, speech teacher at South High School.
King said the auditions are open to all South students and rehearsals will begin as soon as the cast is complete.

CAR IS STOLEN

The 1963 dark gray two-door Chevrolet Bel Air auto of Bobby Salsgaver, 2614 Palmer Ave., was stolen from in front of his home, the victim reported Monday.

Waterweeds and pond scum can be controlled without killing the fish or tampering with the normal ecology.
Waterweed control with chemicals and proper management depends on seasonal observations to predict the growth and prudent treatment before the problem becomes acute.

Late summer treatment requires more skill because of critical oxygen levels in the water. Maturing weeds in September use up oxygen instead of producing it. Late season treatment can kill fish when the dying weeds overload the natural system and remove too much oxygen.

If you want to begin a management program, visit your local Cooperative Extension Service office and review a copy of the handbook, "Aquatic Weeds, Their Identification and Methods of Control" before you develop a management plan. Your farm adviser can help with identification and give advice on a plan of action.

Drum, drill corps, clown and brass bands honored

The Guardsman Drum and Bugle Corps, sponsored by Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 8890 in Hoffman Estates, marched into first place in drum and bugle competition this week at the Illinois State Fair, Springfield. The Guardsmen were defending the title they won at the 1974 state fair. They received $2,000 for taking first place in the competition.

PICKUP TRUCK LOOTED

A tool box containing tools worth about $200, a $30 tape player, and five tape recordings worth a total of $25 were stolen from the pickup truck of Steve Boston, 2624 E. 25th St., parked at his home, it was reported at 1 a.m. Tuesday. The right wing vent window was forced open to gain entry to the truck's cab.

TELEVISION STOLEN

A window was pried open to enter a home owned by a St. Louis woman at 419 Weaver St., Venice, and remove a 18-inch television set and stand, it was reported by a neighbor at 6:15 a.m. Saturday.

Funding for innovative education distribution

Congressman Paul Simon's office has announced the award of $150,000 grant to the Illinois Statewide Facilitator Project in Mounds, Ill., according to Edmond Bridewell, superintendent of the Meridian Community School District.
Funded through the U.S. Office of Education, Title III, Elementary and Secondary Education Act, the Illinois Facilitator is this state's link in a national network of innovative educational programs designed to be implemented in other schools for a fraction of the original developmental cost.
More than 100 of the original developer-demonstrator projects in the network are available to Illinois educators through the facilitator's office.

These projects range from early childhood designs to alternative educational systems for at-risk youth.
The facilitator provides the link between the original developer-demonstrator sites and Illinois school systems interested in learning more about such innovative programs as possible solutions to local-level educational needs.

The second year funds will continue the work of the facilitator in adding additional school districts to meet their needs by matching them with appropriate nationally approved projects from throughout the country in the diffusion network.

The staff will be available to local districts for in-service workshops in many of the developer programs. The staff also will provide follow-up services and evaluation aid for established adopters.

For additional information, schools may call the toll free number (800-645-3892).

$74,772 grant aids educational centers

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has been awarded $74,772 to support Educational Opportunity Centers (EOC) in this area.

EOC offices are located in Alton, Belleville and East St. Louis, comprising a joint project of the Higher Education Coordinating Council of Metropolitan St. Louis and SIUE. The centers' main function is to provide counseling and reference services concerning the available opportunities in post-secondary institutions. Tutorial services are also provided.

Small Jason, project director and assistant vice-president for special projects and minority affairs at SIUE, said,

"Although the centers are located in low income areas and persons of low income are of primary concern, there are no regulations as to who may take use of our services."

"The centers offer information concerning junior colleges, universities and technical schools in the area, both public and private. We assist our clients in applying for financial aid. We have a staff of community facilitators who work in the field to get people acquainted with the center," Jason said.

The centers, which are in their second year, have served over 1,000 individuals, Jason stated.

Ten divorces granted

Ten Quad-City area couples have obtained divorces in Madison County Circuit Court.

Divorced were: Karen (Bhiet) Storman of Brooklyn from Robert Storman of Granite City. They were married May 28, 1973, and separated April 18, 1975. Mental cruelty was charged. Her former name was restored.

Lawrence Dean Mueller of Alton from Betty Jean (Jockish) Mueller of Granite City. They were married July 21, 1972, and separated in January 1975. Mental cruelty was charged. Custody of one child was granted to the mother.

Regina Maria (Beneck) Hillmer from Harold Eugene Hillmer, both of Granite City. They were married Oct. 25, 1947, and separated Dec. 30, 1974. Mental cruelty was charged.

Mildred Eleanor Nagle from Lloyd Jay Nagle, both of Madison. They were married Jan. 14, 1953, and separated in June 1975. Mental cruelty was charged. Custody of one child was granted to the mother.

Janice (Wildeman) Janulavich from Kenneth Janulavich, both of Granite City. They were married Nov. 22, 1974, and separated May 15, 1975. Mental cruelty was charged.

Janet Marie (Bartosz) Gibbs from Gary Crawford Gibbs,

Three charged with burglary

The alertness of Granite City police responding to a report of a burglary at 3 a.m. at the Andria Liquors, 4221 Namooki Road, resulted in the arrest of two Madison youths and a St. Louis man in a truck matching the description of one given by a witness who had observed two persons placing cases of beer in a white truck moments earlier at the liquor firm.

The three, who later were charged with burglary, were Terry S. Soles, 19, of 1243 Iowa St., George A. Szarsinski, 18, of 1816 Market St., and Mike A. Cox, 20, of St. Louis.

Officers enroute to the liquor store stopped the truck at the intersection of Pontoon and Namooki Roads and alleged finding beer inside the vehicle. Beer had been removed from an outside cooler at Andria's after a lock had been pried off, it was reported.

Bi-state health service area designated by U. S.

(Press-Record Washington Bureau)
The Department of Health, Education and Welfare has designated four instead of six separate health service areas for the metropolitan Chicago region, and has left the local area in a grouping with the Missouri portion of the St. Louis metropolitan region.

The Chicago decision was considered the major change HEW made in the Illinois plan submitted by Gov. Dan Walker under the National Health Planning and Resources Development Act of 1974.

HEW Secretary Caspar Weinberger had promised the Illinois Congressional delegation last month that he would give his final decision on the rejected Illinois plan before he left office this week.

HEW announced its designation of a total of 201 health service areas in 47 states as the first step in implementation of the 1974 law.

HEW designated 11 separate health service areas for Illinois, including four crucial separate areas for the Chicago region. They are:

Area 6—City of Chicago.

Area 6—Cook County, including Chicago, plus DuPage County.

Area 8—Lake, Kane and McHenry Counties.

Area 9—Kendall, Grundy, Will and Kane counties.

The other Illinois areas are:

Area 1—Jo, Daviess, Stephenson, Winnebago, Boone, Carroll, Ogle, Whiteside, DeKalb and Lee Counties.

Area 2—Warren, Knox, Fulton, LaSalle, Putnam, Peoria, Tazewell, Henderson, McDonough, Bureau, Starbuck, Marshall and Woodford Counties.

Area 3—Hancock, Schuyler, Pike, Mason, Menard, Sangamon, Greene, Macoupin, Christian, Adams, Brown, Cass, Logan, Morgan, Stott, Calhoun, Montgomery and Jersey Counties.

Area 4—Livingston, Troup, DeWitt, Champaign, Moultrie, Macon, Shelby, Cumberland, McLean, Ford, Piatt, Vermilion, Douglas, Edgar, Coles and Clark Counties.

Area 5—Payette, Jasper, Marion, Richland, Washington, Wayne, Wabash, Perry, Hamilton, Jackson, Saline, Union, Bond, Hardin, Pulaski, Effingham, Crawford, Clay, Lawrence, Jefferson, Edwards, Randolph, Franklin, White, Williamson, Gallatin, Johnson, Pope and Macon Counties.

Area 10—Three counties in Illinois—Rock Island, Mercer and Henry—plus two counties in Iowa: Scott and Muscatine.

Area 11—Consists of four counties in Illinois—Madison, Clinton, St. Clair and Monroe—plus four counties in Missouri: Franklin, St. Charles, Jefferson and St. Louis, in addition to the City of St. Louis.

Appeals board sets hearings

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals will conduct two on-site public hearings Thursday, Aug. 21, on requests from Quad-City area township residents for special use permits to place mobile homes on lots.

At 10:15 a.m. Aug. 21, the board will meet next door to 3315 West Point in State Park Place, an R-4 single family residential district of Nameoki Township, where Lowell and Eddie Harris are requesting a permit to place a 14 by 74 foot mobile home for at least five years.

At 10:45 a.m. the same day, the board will move to the property of Loren Isringhauser in an M-3 heavy industry district of Chouteau Township where a permit is sought to place a mobile home for a caretaker and watchman and as a storage area on the business property.

It is located along the west side of Route 111 just south of the Cahokia Diversion Canal.

Seek thief in white car

Police were searching this week for a young man driving a new white auto with an opera window, possibly a Thunderbird, who was seen driving from the scenes of two auto burglaries within minutes of each other Monday.

Danny Mattingly, St. Louis, said he saw a young man in his car ransacking the glove compartment and when he checked he noticed his owner's manual, registration and other papers had been stolen.

He chased the white car, but was unable to catch it, he said.

A few minutes later, Marvin Dixon, 2810 Palmer Ave., told police a young man had been seen taking items from his car in front of his home. The man left in a white car matching the description given by Mattingly.

Dixon said a witness saw the car drive into Kirkpatrick Homes after leaving Dixon's home.

Dixon said the youth stole about 20 to 24 tape recordings, worth a total of $182, and a new 77 speaker, from his auto.

Loot mobile home

A family which moved from a mobile home owned by Ken Archer, 1537 E. 20th St., took televisions and items valued at several hundred dollars, it was reported at 6 p.m. Monday.

The trailer was in the 2800 block of Myrtle Avenue and the furniture and furnishings were the property of Arthur Clement, 1213 W. Pontoon Road, it was reported.

Stolen were two television sets, pots, pans, dishes, a power mower, a garbage disposal, sheets, a clock, a radio and a fan.

Youth, 18, faces 8 charges

About 10 police cars from six law enforcement agencies were involved in a chase along Madison Avenue which ended at 26th Street early this week.

Granite City officers were informed by radio that St. Louis, National City, Brooklyn, Madison and Venice units were chasing a stolen auto north on Madison Avenue through Madison.

A Granite City car attempted to block the roadway at 14th Street and Madison Avenue, but the auto being chased avoided the block and continued north.

Another attempt to run the car off the road at about 16th Street and Madison Avenue, using a squad car, also failed and yet another attempt to stop the car at 17th Street was unsuccessful.

At 20th Street, police said the auto being chased attempted to ram into a Granite City squad car, causing the driver to move the car out of the path of the speeding car. The officer then fired one shotgun blast at the car which struck the left rear and was believed to have punctured that tire.

Two warning shots were fired as the chase continued with speeds reported in excess of 80 miles-per-hour.

The auto turned left onto 26th Street from Madison Avenue, spun and came to a halt with the driver seen fleeing from the car.

As the car being chased made that turn, a Madison car in pursuit applied its brakes suddenly and a National City police car, driven by Tom Anglin, swerved to miss the Madison car and slid in loose gravel into a sign post at 25th Street and Madison Avenue. The driver was not injured.

Police from the cars which had been chasing the vehicle and from the Madison County Sheriff's Department began searching the area near which the stolen car came to a halt. A dog from the St. Louis canine unit found a man hiding in bushes nearby and arrested him.

Elmer Lee Dent, 18, St. Louis, was handcuffed and taken to the Granite City Jail where he was charged with auto theft and seven traffic charges. He also was ordered held for St. Louis authorities. He was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital for minor injuries and was returned to the custody of police.

Police said the auto recovered was stolen from Nellie Danbridge, St. Louis, in that city. Traffic charges filed against Dent were for having no valid driver's license, fleeing police, reckless driving, improper lane usage, "disobeying" traffic signals at 20th and 23rd Streets on Madison Avenue and speeding (80 m.p.h. in a 30 m.p.h. zone).

HOUSE BURGLARY
A 19-inch black and white television set and a transistor radio were reported stolen at 1:35 p.m. Sunday from the home of Raymond Houston, 1315 Collinsville Ave., Venice. Entry was gained by cutting a screen and forcing a window, Venice police reported.

War on mosquitos is urged in county

The Madison County Environmental Control Committee is warning of possible danger caused by the mosquito-carried disease encephalitis, known as "sleeping sickness."

"Although this disease has been more prevalent in the southern states, health officials predict it will also spread to Illinois," Environmental Building and Zoning Administrator Paul T. Hawkins reports.

Extreme precaution must be used to control this disease, and for the benefit of all citizens, we are requesting that residents do everything possible to eliminate potential breeding places for mosquitos.

"This can be done by spraying ponding and holding areas with larvicide, diesel or motor oil. Empty containers where water has collected, and keep empty lots and residences as clean and free of weeds as possible.

Quad-City births, deaths increase

A total of 77 births and 37 deaths was recorded in the Quad-City area during July, an increase over those reported in the previous month of June and a decrease below the totals recorded in the same month a year ago, according to a vital statistics report by City Clerk Robert Stevens.

There were two fetals during July, compared to none in June this year, and one reported in July a year ago, the report said.

The total of 77 July births compares with 72 reported in June, and 100 recorded in July 1974. The 37 deaths during July was an increase of seven over the 30 in June, but a decrease of three below the 40 reported in the same month a year ago.

Burglarize 3 vacant houses

Officials of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, which owns several vacant houses in the Lexington Subdivision, reported at 4:30 p.m. Monday that keys had been used to enter three of the vacant houses and items valued at several hundred dollars were stolen.

Two storm doors worth $125 were stolen from 2 Concord Court; a kitchen cabinet door and a drawer were taken from 3 Concord Court; and two cabinet doors and two drawers were stolen from 2800 Boston Place, officials were told.

Cheer up—science may solve a few problems

By DR. H. GUYFORD STEVER
Director, National Science Foundation

In the face of so much dark news lately, I believe that we, as a nation, deserve a break. It is imperative that we put our situation, our capabilities and our prospects in better perspective and shake ourselves free from some of the self-inflicted pessimism that is compounding our current difficulties.

While not underestimating these difficulties, or the efforts it may take to overcome them, I contend that our situation is not as bad as many would have us believe.

I have this contention not just on our current strength and resources—both material and human—but on the fact that I see taking root in all the problems and challenges new thinking, new ideas and new means for achieving remarkable advances.

If we examine growth as characteristic of life, we must take into consideration the "matter" of evaluation. Organisms themselves change by adapting to new conditions.

At this point we cannot tell to what extent man is growing as compared to how rapidly he is evolving—and by this I mean changing and adapting through his science and technology and his general creativity.

It is largely the principles of economics that drive our evolutionary machinery. They make us adapt and grow creatively to overcome scarcity as we try to meet new expectations.

What is the future role of science and technology in this economic and evolutionary scheme of things? Their role is already crucial and will continue to grow in importance.

This is because those economic principles related to scarcity and growth are driving us to turn increasingly to knowledge as a source of new capital.

There are a variety of areas in which I see the possibility of important scientific and technical advances over a period of time.

Perhaps I should begin with the field of energy. One of the most interesting and potentially very rewarding lines of research and development is that involving the many aspects of solar energy.

Programs to date have proved the technological and economic feasibility of solar heating and cooling of buildings, and we are looking forward to its widespread commercial use over the coming years.

In this country, the heating and cooling of buildings requires 30 per cent of our total fuel.

If only 10 per cent of this amount could be supplied by solar energy by 1980, we could save the equivalent of about one million barrels of oil per day.

Further projections with 20 years later, solar heating and cooling could result in an annual saving equivalent to 1,500 billion kilowatt hours of electricity.

The use of solar energy through bioconversion to fuels presents many interesting prospects.

Studies show it is possible to grow and harvest certain types of plants that could be a fuel competitive with coal. And this could be done on land not in use for agriculture.

Another bioconversion plan is to grow just below the surface of the sea 100,000-acre beds of kelp—a giant (weather, insects and disease permitting), farm spokesmen, commodity brokers and agricultural experts don't see all that much sunshine and good news.

At least not in what the bumper crop supply will mean in dollars and cents to the agricultural economy.

"It's good news for the livestock dealer," bubbled Paulsen, director of Agricultural Economics, USDA.

"It's good news for the consumer. It's good news for the farm producer who can convert the grain to a supply of meat and eggs."

"It's good news for the hungry people overseas. It's good news for the board of commodity trade."

He added that while increased world grain supplies could help alleviate hunger in many nations, worldwide recession is a handicap. There has been a drop in raw material values for copper, tin, co-

"Happy vacation! We'll be here when you come back."

Assails inflation-proof raises set by federal legislators for selves

To the Editor:

I have just read a commentary by Patrick J. Buchanan which referred to the recent passage, by Congress, of a salary increase for legislators and high level employees.

It is appalling that, at a time of 10 per cent unemployment and families having difficulties meeting their financial obligations, Congressmen would have the audacity to pass a pay hike for themselves.

Whatever happened to the concept of public service and predominant material new technology released—from the Stone Age, through the Bronze and Iron Ages.

Historians may one day call this the Silicon Age, because science has made the element—one of the most abundant on earth—a principal resource for all the electronic activities that now support this civilization.

Substitution will probably be a concept applied more strongly than ever—not only in materials used, but in technologies and functions that draw on materials in completely new ways.

One example of substitution is in the field of optical communication made possible by the technological breakthrough two years ago that led to the development of low-loss glass fiber optic cable.

If we look at the telephone industry, for instance, we see that it is based domestically on a terrestrial network that contains 188 million miles of twisted copper conductors representing about two million tons of that metal.

At an annual growth rate of four per cent, four million tons of copper would be in place by 1980.

Based on the July 1975 price of copper—65 cents per pound—this represents about $2.6 billion in excess of $5 billion.

Using glass fiber optic cables as a substitute material and technology, it is anticipated that the final installation cost could be lowered by 50 per cent.

One movement we may see along the lines of material substitution is toward the use of more renewable resources.

Studies have convinced some economists that wood may be approaching economic viability as a new feedstock for the chemical industry.

Wood today can be converted into chemicals for the production of many synthetic materials.

Although no predictions have been made yet for soybean production, it appears also to be a healthy crop. He said soybean prices might fall to $4 by harvest time from the current $4.80 per bushel (approximately).

Asked what the farmer needed to make a profit, Steele said some figured about $8 for soybeans and $3.25 a bushel for corn. Dale S. Stahl, executive director of the Illinois Farm Bureau's commodities division, added that $5 a bushel for wheat was about a year ago (for any margin of profit).

"It now appears the cost of seedling and producing the 1975 crop will be even higher than the 1974 crop," said Steele. "Therefore, other prices anticipated by farmers must reflect these expected cost changes or he public trust?

Congressmen and senators now make more than 50 per cent of the U.S. citizens and the salary is nearly four times the median family income in Illinois.

However unbelievable it was to me that Senators Percy and Stevenson and Congressman Price would vote for this pay increase, I find it totally unconscionable that they would also include an annual "cost of living increase" provision. This certainly insulates them

Next is the matter of economic advantages through research and development on industrial processes.

One line of this research is that of advanced automation. An example of automation research is the work being done on computer control systems in the steel industry.

A number of steel companies are cooperating with the Purdue Laboratory for Applied Industrial Controls on this work toward fuller automation of steel plants.

It has been estimated that the potential payoff from this research could run about $1.5 billion annually.

It would result from such benefits as improved productivity, reduced raw materials requirements and reduced energy consumption.

Let me conclude by making some brief points basic to the overall subject of science and economy.

While I believe strongly in the cooperative aspects of interrelated science, I want to note the competitive side of the picture.

There is no doubt that, though it remains strong, this country's leadership in high technology is being strongly challenged in many ways in many parts of the world.

There comes a time in every industry—and every country—when more basic and applied research is essential to bring totally new products and services to the marketplace.

World conditions are telling us that time is here. If not past due.

Second, a great many of our future benefits, both economic and human, are going to come from research and development that will improve the productivity of our private and public services.

As a larger number of our population shifts into employment in services, we must improve the productivity of this sector of the economy, not only for economic reasons but to make our society more livable.

Third, much of the progress we make in advancing and applying our science and technology is going to depend on the closeness of cooperation between certain groups in the society.

I want to emphasize the importance of closer ties between industry, universities and government.

If the research potential of our great universities and technological institutions is to be used to its best advantage in terms of economic progress, it is essential that industry make them more keenly aware of their needs and problems—and work with them in matters of support and training.

Finally, let me not get the idea that science and technology, for all their attributes, offer quick, or easy or cheap solutions to life problems and the rest of life work force.

Nor can they do the job alone. Social and political change must accompany them.

Human progress has always been based on the accumulation and productive use of capital. And this has always called for hard work and sacrifice.

In building the knowledge and productive use of capital, we have been and are being challenged in the years ahead, we need to exploit the human intellect to the fullest.

We know now that man can no longer exploit nature, or his fellow man, as he has done intentionally or inadvertently throughout history.

We are entering a new era when man's basic curiosity and his applied intelligence will again play a key role in his survival.

In this era we must—and we will—succeed.

From Congressionally-caused inflation due to overspending.

The only hope taxpayers have is that President Ford has the political astuteness, common sense and compassion for the public to veto the bill.

I feel their constituents are entitled to some reasonable explanation for the affirmative votes cast for this pay increase.

School of Dental Medicine boon to community, region

"I am being more than simply courteous when I tell you how glad I am to be here today," smiling SIUE President John Rendleman commented during the weekend to the first (outside Cook County) Illinois dental graduation class.

It was a proud occasion not only for the administration and students of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville but also for this community, region, state and nation.

The long-sought School of Dental Medicine became a reality several years ago, and its first 20 products have earned doctor of dental medicine degrees plus national board certificates. The latter attest to their successful completion of the national examination required to apply for a state license to practice dentistry.

Dr. Randall D. Bell, Granite City, earned the American Academy of Dental Radiology Award, Dentistry International Award and St. Clair District Dental Society Award and will begin his practice as a U.S. Army officer.

Dr. John J. Uram of Granite City plans to enter private practice in Wood River. Those who will practice in Granite City include Dr. Mark S. Friederich of Granite City, American Society of Dentistry for Children Award recipient; Dr. Stephen M. Conway of Granite City, Madison District Dental Society Award winner; and Dr. Patrick A. Bernardi, originally of Danville.

Quad-Cityans were among the chief contributors to the fund that led to land acquisition in the early 1960s for what became SIUE; they were keenly aware of the diverse university services that had been lacking in Southwestern Illinois, and of the constructive impact that could be made once such services had been started.

The addition of new dentists here and elsewhere is only one of many happy examples of this favorable impact.

Fix disputed street and light without further delay

Versions differ, but there is little doubt of the results that have stemmed from the jurisdictional disagreement between the City of Madison and the Township of Nameoki: Operation of a pedestrian and vehicle crossing light on McCambridge Avenue has been halted, and there has been little or no maintenance of Farish Street, which runs along the front of Madison High School.

The deep holes that have developed in the Farish Street surface and the absence of needed traffic control on McCambridge have created severe hazards and inconvenience not only for the residents of the city, township and Madison school district but also for the general public residing and working throughout the Quad-Cities.

A solution will be achieved eventually. In the meantime, elected officials should not make citizens the victim during their effort to devise an agreement.

The street ought to be fixed immediately, and the spotlight ought to be turned on now. If these steps are not taken, the public has every right to hold the responsible officials directly accountable for intolerable conditions.

Intersection of Routes 162-35 site of many injuries

Fatalities and serious injuries have occurred during some of the many traffic accidents that have been recorded at the point where Route 162 intersects with State Aid Route 35 and Mockingbird Lane. The location has been mentioned frequently in Press-Record reports of vehicular crashes.

The two intersecting roads do not meet precisely but are connecting links on the route of many motorists, who jog slightly in crossing Route 162. Both Route 35 and Mockingbird have stop signs, while Route 162 drivers are not required to stop and sometimes attain high speed.

It would appear to be highly appropriate for traffic authorities to consider stoplights or some other form of achieving a safety improvement at the dangerous intersection.

11 of governor's 36 proposed laws enacted

By AL MANNING

SPRINGFIELD — Gov. Daniel Walker's legislative program did poorly in the 79th session of the Illinois General Assembly, an analysis shows.

Illinois issues, a Sangamon State University publication, made a 36-item legislative list from the "State of the State" address the governor delivered Feb. 13. An analysis shows only 11 of the 36 points were approved by the legislature.

Here's a point-by-point summary of the program:

1. Increase unemployment compensation — pass; 2. Modernize workmen's compensation — pass; 3. Prohibit the use of strikebreakers — pass; 4. Provide for collective bargaining — fail; 5. Improve minimum wage coverage — pass.

Consumer Protection:

6. Eliminate abuses in consumer credit and auto repair — fail; 7. Assume fair treatment for tenants, mobile home dwellers — fail; 8. Require prescriptions for the sale of hearing aids — fail; 9. Require prescriptions be made in name of generic drugs — fail; 10. Require open shelf dating — fail; (some consumer bills placed on fall calendar).

Insurance:

11. Provide a true no-fault auto insurance bill — fail (fall calendar); 12. Preserve confidentiality of student records — pass.

Personal Safety:

13. Criminals be brought to trial in 90 days — fail; 14. Establish statewide probation system — fail; 15. Reform rape laws — pass; 16. Tighten procedure for bail — fail.

Mental Health:

17. Implement changes recommended by Governor's Commission — not introduced.

Reorganization:

18. Establish Department of Consumer Affairs and Business Licensing to replace Registration and Education — fail; 19. Adopt consumer representation — fail; 20. Establish Consumer Advocate within new consumer office — (budget request cut by three-fourths); 21. Change Division of Vocational Rehabilitation to code department — fail; 22. Transfer administrative functions of Comprehensive Health Planning to Public Health — pass; 23. Establish commission to administer property tax assessment functions — fail (fall calendar); 24. Consolidate functions dealing with nuclear safety — pass.

Electoral Reform:

25. Adopt longer voter hours — fail; 26. Adopt post-card registration system — fail.

Equal Rights:

27. Ratify Equal Rights Amendment — fail (fall calendar).

Judiciary:

28. Adopt constitutional amendment on merit selection of judges — fail; 29. Increase number of judges — pass.

Discrimination:

30. Give Fair Employment Practices Commission the power to initiate complaints — pass.

Budget Reform:

31. Establish joint executive-legislative task force to recommend changes in budget procedures — fail.

Ethics and Personnel:

32. Codify executive order on income disclosure — fail; 33. Close loopholes in campaign disclosure — pass; 34. Extend civil service protection to other executive offices and boards — fail; 35. Disclose land trust beneficiaries — fail; 36. Regulate lobbyists stringently — fail.

Even big harvest may not be bonanza to farmers

By MARIE DOTY

CHICAGO — Dr. Don Paulsen was suitably optimistic after the U.S. Department of Agriculture prediction of record corn and wheat crops this year.

"It's good news for the livestock dealer," bubbled Paulsen, director of Agricultural Economics, USDA.

"It's good news for the consumer. It's good news for the farm producer who can convert the grain to a supply of meat and eggs."

"It's good news for the hungry people overseas. It's good news for the board of commodity trade."

He added that while increased world grain supplies could help alleviate hunger in many nations, worldwide recession is a handicap. There has been a drop in raw material values for copper, tin, co-weather, insects and disease permitting), farm spokesmen, commodity brokers and agricultural experts don't see all that much sunshine and good news.

At least not in what the bumper crop supply will mean in dollars and cents to the agricultural economy.

The farmer will be the one to benefit least from his fat harvest — unless there is a reasonable amount of grain exported, is the contention.

"We believe the American consumer will be the primary beneficiary of the record crops," said Steele. "It's a double-edged sword."

"In 1973 farm profits, reached $32.2 billion," he said. "In 1974 it was $27.2 billion and it is now estimated that net returns for 1975 will be about $20 billion. This is a 20 per cent drop in one year."

Steele predicted that the record 6-billion-bushel corn crop will probably mean $1 per bushel or lower at harvest time. It is now about $2.20 a bushe.

Although no predictions have been made yet for soybean production, it appears also to be a healthy crop. He said soybean prices might fall to $4 by harvest time from the current $4.80 per bushel (approximately).

Asked what the farmer needed to make a profit, Steele said some figured about $8 for soybeans and $3.25 a bushel for corn. Dale S. Stahl, executive director of the Illinois Farm Bureau's commodities division, added that $5 a bushel for wheat was about a year ago (for any margin of profit).

"It now appears the cost of seedling and producing the 1975 crop will be even higher than the 1974 crop," said Steele. "Therefore, other prices anticipated by farmers must reflect these expected cost changes or he will reduce production."

Several ways listed by Steele for crop reduction included reducing fertilizer (a high cost item); diverting acres to other crops; reducing total acreage through government or voluntary programs.

To see what this would mean to the consumer, one would only have to look at the current pork prices cut back sharply. The live hog market has more than doubled from $25 (per hundred pounds) to $53.50, Steele said.

"We're at a 50-year low in pork and this happened in just 12 months."

"The biggest impact will be felt at the meat counters. Increased feeding of cattle, hogs and poultry (because of cheaper grain) will result in some reduction in meat prices this fall and next year," Steele said.

Some people believe that eating a dragon's heart will take them upon one considerable courage. Of course it takes considerable courage to eat a dragon's heart in the first place!

Goggles are believed to derive their name from the old English term for squinting.

Dentists Conway, Bernardi, Friederich to practice here

The first dentists to be graduated from a professional school in Illinois outside Cook County were awarded doctor of dental medicine degrees in ceremonies during the week of the first commencement of the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville School of Dental Medicine.

At least ten of the class of 20 graduates have plans to enter private practice in Downstate Illinois.

SIUE President John S. Rendleman was the keynote speaker and conferred degrees in the program at the Communications Building theater on the main Edwardsville campus. Six of the new dentists have military commitments and will report for duties with the U. S. Army in various parts of the United States. They are:

Floyd W. Barry, Caseyville; Randall D. Bell, Granite City; Robert L. Bennett, Gibson City; Michael G. Corneille, Fairview Heights; Norman E. Grover, Alton; and Dana L. Stonestor, Sterling.

The dentists who have announced plans to begin their professional careers in Illinois and the cities where they will locate include:

Patrick A. Bernardi of Danville, private practice in Granite City.

Bernard L. Bucher Jr. of Eureka, private practice in Peoria.

Steven A. Carr of Palms Heights, private practice in Carlinville.

Stephen M. Conway of Granite City, private practice in Granite City.

Dean W. Drake of Belleville, private practice in Belleville.

Glen E. Enloe of Arlington Heights, private practice in Jerseyville.

Mark S. Friederich of Granite City, private practice in Granite City.

Jay M. Seeverup of Moline, private practice in Moline.

John J. Uram of Granite City, private practice in Wood River.

And Brent D. Wolford of Edwardsville, private practice in Edwardsville.

Other members of the graduating class and their professional plans are:

James L. Davis of Chicago, private practice in Chicago.

John J. Edwards of St. Louis, private practice in St. Louis.

William J. Escar Jr. of Collinsville, private practice in Collinsville.

Frederick C. Fox, private practice with the Public Health Service, Seattle, Wash.

Presiding with President

Rendleman at the commencement ceremonies was Dr. Stanley P. Hansen, dean of the School of Dental Medicine. He was one of the graduates who read by Dr. James D. Harrison, associate dean, and the new dentists were "blessed" by Vice President and Provost Andrew J. Kochman and Dr. Phillip M. Hoag, chairperson of the Faculty Assembly.

Greetings were presented on behalf of the SIUE Board of Trustees by Ivan A. Elliott Jr., chairman.

A response on behalf of the class of 1975 was given by Dean W. Drake, president of the class. Prayers of invocation and benediction were given by the Rev. Russ Wigfield, campus minister.

A concert by the SIUE brass ensemble preceded the exercises, and the graduates were honored at a reception following the program in the Communications Building.

The state's first Downstate dental school was established in 1969 after being recommended by the Illinois Board of Higher Education. The first class was admitted at the school's Alton center in September 1972.

Students attend 45 weeks per year, enabling them to complete the requirements for their professional degree in three years instead of the traditional four.

Crawford named to Venice Park Board

Alfred Dale Crawford, 40, of 1224 Market St., Venice, was appointed Friday as park commissioner on the Venice Park Board during the board's monthly meeting at Lee Park Recreation Center. His appointment leaves no vacancies existing on the five-member board.

Crawford, a Madison High School graduate and a McKinley Bridge maintenance supervisor, has participated for the past 15 years in park-related activities, primarily in initiating and managing youth baseball teams through the Venice Little League.

He and his wife Frances, have two sons, Alfred Jr., and Avery. Crawford, who could not be reached for comment, will fill position on the board vacated by Willie Teal who resigned last month to accept a position as the Park District's recreation director. Crawford will hold the appointment until the next general election in 1977.

July rainfall below normal

Rainfall in the Quad-City area during July totaled 2.29 inches, or 37 of an inch less than the normal July precipitation of 3.30 inches.

Rain fell on only six days last month, with the heaviest fall registered at 1.35 inches on July 6. Precipitation of .25 of an inch was recorded on July 7 and July 18, with a fall of .26 of an inch on July 19.

A fall of .10 of an inch was recorded July 20, and .08 of an inch on July 14.

The total precipitation brought to 21.23 inches the total rainfall for the first seven months of this year, or only .08 of an inch less than the normal total precipitation of 21.27 inches for the seven-month period.

July rainfall was 1.45 inches heavier than the .84 of an inch recorded in July 1974. The fall during the first seven months of the year is 4.42 inches more than the 16.81 inches recorded in the first seven months of 1974.

Checks for disabled veterans next month

Checks ranging from $3 to $174 will be mailed in September to 2.2 million disabled veterans and 200,000 dependents who qualify for increases in their disability compensation and dependency indemnity compensation, signed into law by President Ford on Aug. 5.

The increases of 10 to 12 percent were effective Aug. 1, but the change came too late to be incorporated in the checks to be mailed at the end of August.

Administrator of Veterans Affairs Richard L. Roudebush explained this week.

A separate check for the amount of the increase will be mailed to beneficiaries during September.

The new rates will be reflected in checks to be mailed at the end of September and in all subsequent monthly checks.

Total cost of the increases for the first year is $450 million. Roudebush emphasized that no application or inquiry is necessary. The increases will be made automatically by the agency, he explained.

Veterans with a 50 percent or less disability rating received a 10 percent increase in their monthly payments.

Veterans with a greater disability rating and DIC beneficiaries received a 12 percent increase under the new law.

Monthly payments to single veterans with 10 percent disabilities were increased from $32 to $35.

Veterans rated 100 percent under the general schedule were raised from $58 to $65.

For the most severely disabled, the maximum amount was raised from $1,454 to $1,628 monthly.

Benefit game for burn victim

A benefit baseball game to aid the family of Donald Tinsley, 14, who was burned over 75 per cent of his body in a gasoline fire July 25, will be held Sunday at 3:30 p.m. at Diamond No. 2 at Wilson Park.

The game will be played by McDonald Cubs and Mercer's of the first-year juvenile division. Contributions will be received by the team managers, Jake Hinterser and Ray Harris, at the park during the game. A hat will be passed for donations.

Young Tinsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tinsley, 2833

Logan St., remained in critical condition this week in the Burn Unit of Barnes Hospital. He suffered third degree burns to 65 per cent of his body and first and second degree burns to 10 per cent of his body when his clothing caught fire.

His mother, Mrs. Margaret Tinsley, said gasoline that had spilled on the garage floor at their home became ignited apparently from a spark from a cigarette which one of Donald's friends was smoking. Her son's clothing caught fire from the gasoline flames.

Mrs. Tinsley said the boy is expected to be confined to the hospital for many months and that plastic surgery will be required. He is in room 3300 at Barnes Hospital.

AMVET PICNIC

Amvets Post 204 of Madison will hold a family picnic at the Arlington Golf Club Sunday, beginning at noon. Games, food and refreshments will be featured at the event.

LIST WITH COCHRANE-WOLF

MAC DAVIS. The popular television performer, also a busy composer, will sing at the Mississippi River Festival here Monday evening, Aug. 18.

JEFFERSON STARSHIP. Formerly known as Jefferson Airplane, the successful musical group will perform Tuesday night, Aug. 19, at the Mississippi River Festival on the SIUE campus.

Mac Davis, Starship in River Fest's final week

Performances by Mac Davis, Jefferson Starship and the Osmonds will mark the eighth and final week of activities at the 1975 Mississippi River Festival, held on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Davis, appearing Monday, Aug. 18, is the writer of such pop standards as "In The Ghetto," "Watching Scotty Grow," "Baby, Don't Get Hooked On Me," "I Believe In Music" and others.

Originally a writer and promoter in the record business, Davis in recent years has begun singing his own material, as well as having others perform it.

His success as a performer has included tours, television specials, and his own network television program.

Artists such as Lou Rawls, Elvis Presley, Bobby Goldsboro, O. C. Smith, Glen Campbell and Kenny Rogers and the First Edition are among those who have had major popular hits with songs written by Davis. His own renditions of "Baby, Don't Get Hooked On Me" and "I Believe In Music" are among the major hits he has had singing his own songs.

Appearing with Davis will be the Captain and Tennille, whose hit, "Love Will Keep Us Together," rode the top of the pop charts for much of the summer. The Monday night performance begins at 8:30.

Jefferson Starship, appearing

Tuesday, Aug. 19, was originally a studio group only. Composed primarily of members of the old Jefferson Airplanes, the Starship began as the creation of Paul Kantner. He used the musicians as a group to back up his "Blows Against the Empire" album in 1970.

The album, a science fiction tale of a spaceship hijacking, became a best-selling "LP," but the group continued doing studio work only until late 1974, when it first went on tour.

As Jefferson Airplane, and then as the Starship, the group has had a number of gold albums, including "Surrealistic Pillow," "Volunteers," "The Worst of Jefferson Airplane," and "Bark."

Appearing with Jefferson Starship will be Flo and Eddie, a rock comedy duo.

The final River Festival performance of the season is scheduled Wednesday, Aug. 20, when the Osmonds appear with a special guest, Munch. The show starts at 8:30 p.m.

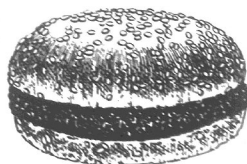

The Osmonds have been atop the pop music market since the late 1960s, when they first came to national attention on the Andy Williams Show and as guest artists on numerous television talk and variety shows.

Their own network specials have followed, as well as worldwide tours and hit singles and albums.

A special season-closing fireworks display by Jerry Walker of Sunset Fireworks will be given after the Osmonds show.

Tickets for any of the performances are available at the SIUE box office or at any of the Festival outlets, including the American National Bank and Chamber of Commerce here. Tickets for all three shows start at $3.

Plan Forget Me Not drive

Lynn Mitton, chairman of the Disabled American Veterans Chapter 33, Forget Me Not drive, was the guest speaker at the DAV Auxiliary meeting last week at the DAV Hall.

He outlined plans for the weekend fund-raising project, which will take place the second week in September and discussed tentative arrangements for a dance.

During the meeting a card was read from the national chaplain in memory of the late Helen Miller, a member of the local chapter.

Others present were Lana Kullips, June Schaefer, Bert Kichler, Louise Schieff, Pat Moeke, Alta Carpenter, Barbara Mitton, Lorraine Groves. The social meeting is set for Aug. 19 at the DAV Hall.

Indoor picnic at St. John United

An indoor picnic, hosted annually by the Afternoon Guild, was conducted in the Fellowship Hall at St. John United Church of Christ.

Thirty-three members attended the potluck luncheon. The Rev. Dr. Paul R. Surbey offered the invocation.

Games were played and prizes were awarded to those excelling. Mrs. Mildred Branding received a special gift.

Two guests present were Laura and Michelle Jenness. Happy birthday was sung to Susan Sigite and Mrs. Joanna Spencer who will have birthdays this month.

58'ers review fair projects

The 58'ers 4-H Club met last week at St. John's United Church of Christ with 11 members present. The meeting was opened by President Susan Sigite and pledges were led by Laura and Michelle Jenness. Happy birthday was sung to Susan Sigite and Mrs. Joanna Spencer who will have birthdays this month.

Janet Scannell and Karen Spencer gave reports on the Madison County Fair. Club members whose projects were shown at the Fair were: Janet Scannell, ceramics—B; Patty Basarich, ceramics—A; Susan Basarich, ceramics—A; Helen Goeller, ceramics—A; Rhonda Resch, ceramics—A; and Lisa Scannell, slitchery—A.

In a previous report of the County Achievement show, Karen Spencer's name was omitted. She was enrolled in "Milk and Eggs in Your Meals" and received an A rating. Lisa Griffey was one of ten first-year clothing models who modeled her garment at the dress review.

During the business session the club voted to give a donation to St. John's Youth Group in appreciation for use of the church for meetings. Tours have been arranged for club members to include Aug. 18 to Martha Manning Dress Factory in Collinsville, and Aug. 19 to Illinois Power Company, Granite City. Another tour to a tie manufacturing plant will be arranged if possible before school starts, it was reported.

Recreation was provided by Michelle and Laura Jenness and refreshments were served by Eddie Schilling and Donna Jones. Members present completed the Illinois Honor Club member record sheets. Any member not present should contact Mrs. Spencer as this form must be completed before this club year is over.

Vacationists tour historic sites

Mrs. Madonna Groshong, 1231 Klein St., Venice, accompanied by her grandson David Seilheimer, 3318 Princeton Place, visited 13 states and Canada, Niagara Falls and took a cruise of the Thousand Islands in the St. Lawrence seaway.

Highlight of the vacation for the fourth grade Niedringhaus School student was when his picture was taken aboard the USS Constitution by a Time magazine photographer.

"Old Ironsides" based in the Boston Harbor was reportedly put in use March 27, 1794, and marked the beginning of the U.S. Navy.

Madison Junior Service Club planning fish fry, workshop

Fund-raising projects and plans to host a workshop were the main topics of discussion at a regular meeting of the Madison Junior Service Club last week at the Madison library.

Mrs. Julia Voloski, president, was in charge of the business session and announced the club will hold a fish fry on Friday, Sept. 5, at Schermer's parking lot. Fish sandwiches, slaw, pickles and onions costing $1.25, and sandwiches only at a cost of $1 will be served from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. and carry-out orders are also available, the president added.

Plans were finalized for the Madison Club to host the Junior Service Federation workshop on Saturday, Sept. 20, at the Madison Recreation Center, beginning at 9 a.m. Clubs from Collinsville, Staunton and Granite City will participate and discuss their yearly projects, programs and new ideas.

Mrs. Voloski also said a memorial will be made for the late Jean Voegeli, a club member, at the Madison Methodist Church.

Reservations for the club's Christmas party at the Plantation Dinner Theater on Dec. 9 to view "The Baggy Pants Revue" have been made, the president reported.

The club's annual "Luncheon with Santa" project was discussed and arrangements set for the event to take place on Dec. 12, featuring Cocky the Clown.

Others attending the meeting included Tressa Rhodes, Dorothy Smith, Elvera Stagner, Rita Barnhart, Carol Childers, Rita Lybarger, Judy Donaldson, Shirley Clark and Mary Anna Kaminski.

The next board meeting will be held at the home of the club sponsor, Mrs. Lillian Delp, on Sept. 4. The regular meeting is scheduled Sept. 9 with Mrs. Lybarger and Irene Hackett serving as hostesses.

Girls tour Bicentennial barge

Girl Scout troop 859 from Sacred Heart Catholic Church toured the Bicentennial Barge, a rivercraft sponsored by Triad, a non-profit organization from Pennsylvania, which was docked for three days in St. Louis.

The Girl Scouts welcomed the barge with a "Pennsylvania 76," also attended by senators from Pennsylvania and Missouri, together with other dignitaries.

A program of musical selections relating to the Bicentennial celebration was provided by the Pittsburgh (Pa.) Youth Symphony.

Aboard the barge many exhibits were on display, including a replica of a conestoga wagon and a flat bottom river boat. According to the tour guides, the barge will be used to travel down river to New Orleans next year, another project of the Pennsylvania group designed in keeping with observance.

Girls attending from here were Susan Alexander, Debra and Kim Daugherty, Debra Miller, Theresa and Jeanette Narup, Megan and Jackie Sourers, Michelle Zelenka, Donna Jakul, Kathy Galbreath, Tracy Conovich, Paula Koch, Theresa Vasquez, Laura Smolar, Theresa Foellner, Lisa Walker, a guest, Nancy Jo Miller, and leader Mrs. Georgina Miller.

Truck license deadline near

Tomorrow night is the deadline for all second division vehicles, including trucks, trailers and buses, to display 1975 fiscal year license plates. Secretary of State Michael J. Howlett reminded motorists today.

Recreational vehicles need not display the new plates until Jan. 1 due to a change to a calendar year registration. Second division plates for trucks must be displayed before 12:01 a.m. Saturday.

Hospitals, doctors to fight Medicaid reimbursement cuts

Seven health care provider organizations have said jointly that if Governor Daniel Walker refuses to modify or rescind his budgetary reduction decision, the organizations will consider every possible recourse, including legal action against the state.

The seven organizations are the Illinois Hospital Association, Illinois State Medical Society, Illinois Nursing Home Association, Illinois Association of Health Care Facilities, Chicago Hospital Council, County and Non-profit Nursing Home Association and Chicago Retail Druggist Association. The organizations were responding to a July 31 announcement by the Illinois Department of Public Aid director, James L. Trainer, that the department will trim its Medicaid expenses six per cent, nearly $50 million, by implementing a series of cost-saving policies.

Effective Aug. 1, nursing home rates were frozen at current levels. Pharmacists are being reimbursed for wholesale cost of the drug and are allowed to add a flat $1.75 rate to cover additional costs.

Previously, pharmacists were reimbursed on a standard formula that added a 30 per cent markup to the cost, plus an additional $1.35 for professional fees.

Effective Sept. 1, physicians will be paid less than the newly established fee schedule ceilings. Trainer added in his announcement that the department is also studying various alternatives which will decrease the amount of money paid to hospitals. "We have tolerated increasing amounts of paper work. We have tolerated low payments and unbelievable payment delays."

"But, we will not tolerate this discriminatory action against Medicaid patients. It is totally unfair for the governor to jeopardize the availability of care for Medicaid patients," in the opinion of the organizations' spokesman, J. M. Ingalls, M.D., president of the Illinois State Medical Society.

"This was a health care cutback—not a 'management control' cutback, with the victims being medically indigent patients."

"How can the state maintain the current level of medical services on a budget that has been reduced by $50 million?" he asked.

George L. Heidkamp, chairman of the Illinois Hospital Association board of trustees and executive vice-president of Northwestern Memorial Hospital, Chicago, said at a joint press conference that the IHA "realizes and sympathizes with the difficult task assigned to the Illinois Department of Public Aid director."

"But we take strong exception to the obvious priorities that Governor Walker has established for the citizens of Illinois."

"When hospitals operate at tight operating margins, or operate at a level where reimbursement is below cost, there are only two alternatives: cut back in services, or increase charges to paying patients. "A cutback in services will result in a lower quality of medical care for all patients," Heidkamp warned.

at right. Himmelright achieved the bicycle by collecting the most pledges money for miles completed in a bike-a-thon event held here earlier this summer to raise funds for the Cancer Crusade. The "bicycle-built-for-two" was donated by Western Auto and the Granite City Steel Employees Credit Union.

Newport homecoming to begin Aug. 30 at park

The Newport Homecoming Association has completed plans for its fifth annual homecoming on Labor Day weekend, Aug. 30, 31 and Sept. 1, it was announced today.

There will be carnival fair and all-day picnics during the three days at Lee Park in Venice. Persons wishing to acquire booths and concessions on the picnic grounds may do so Saturday, Aug. 16, at 10 a.m. at 1013 Market St., Madison. No concessions will be sold prior to that time.

The activities will begin with a parade on Saturday, Aug. 30, at 10 a.m. The parade will be made up of bands, floats, equestrians and motorized and marching units.

Units from the Venice and Madison Fire Departments will participate. There will be a repeat performance of the mechanized unit of the John F. Parr Shrine Lodge 8 of St. Louis.

Clowns will disperse "goodies" to the kids along the parade route. Any units wishing to enter the parade may contact the grand marshal, Charles Haynes, at 877-2383.

Donald Turner and Del Crawford will coordinate athletic activities. They have scheduled a boys and girls tournament at the softball diamonds along with other sports. Winners trophies will be presented at the Homecoming Ball on Sunday, Aug. 31, at the Venice-Madison Post American Legion 307.

Music for the ball will be furnished by Clyde Jones and the Players featuring Charles "Little Man" Wright on tenor sax and vocal numbers.

The traditional homecoming breakfast will be served on Monday (Labor Day) at the Lee Park Center from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Entertainment will be furnished by the West Madison Community Choir.

Response from out-state indicates that "homecomers" will exceed 500 people.

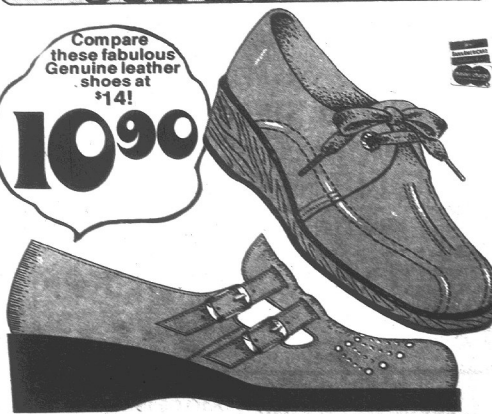

The Clemens family is to hold its family reunion at the homecoming on Saturday, Aug. 30. The reunion president, Helen Clemens King, said that family members from every state in the union will attend.

Further information about the homecoming may be obtained by calling 451-9722.

Vision care for students urged

The upcoming school year finds many Illinois parents preparing their children for school—buying clothes, books, school supplies and miscellaneous items. Unfortunately for many children, their parents may neglect to provide them with a fundamental and essential tool of the learning process—good vision.

Illinois parents are being advised to avoid this school preparation deficiency by Dr. Conrad Mazzei, vice-president of education of the Illinois Optometric Association.

"The importance of vision care to school achievement cannot be overemphasized—more than 80 per cent of all school work and activities are based on vision," he says.

"Vision is the key to a child's work development, not only to school achievement. Personality, posture and adjustment to life are closely involved with visual development."

He said current Illinois law does not provide for thorough eye examinations of school children, so the responsibility of having a child's eyes examined by a vision doctor must be left to the parents. Presently, vision screening at the first, fifth and ninth grades is mandated, utilizing for the most part only the Snellen eye chart test.

As a result of inadequate screening, serious functional visual problems are overlooked each year in an estimated 525,000 Illinois school children at the first, fifth and ninth grade levels," Dr. Mazzei asserted. He reported other statistics:

- 1) 12 1/2 per cent of grade school children are visually deficient. This figure rises sharply to 66 per cent by the ninth grade.
- 2) 25 per cent of first graders will become remedial readers, and 40 per cent of fifth graders will become dropouts when they reach high school due to reading and reading-associated problems.
- 3) Vision screening tests now in effect using the Snellen eye chart are considered only 23 per cent effective.

"Whether a person is six years old, or 26 years old, vision is one of the most essential tools of the learning process, that any successful student cannot do without," emphasizes Superintendent of Cook County Schools Richard J. Martwick.

"Good vision is paramount to a child's success not only in his school work but also in athletics and social development," Martwick continued.

"Teachers are also important detectors in determining whether a child suffers from visual disability. In most cases, the teacher spends more time with the child in an educational environment than do the parents and may be aware of possible danger signs."

"We in the school system hope that parents would not endanger their child's success because they were negligent in having their children's eyes examined before the school year begins."

Fear out of ten grade school children in the U.S. are regarded as visually handicapped for adequate achievement. Neglected vision problems are frequently found in children who are retarded readers.

Supt. Martwick recommends that "all students in the lower third of the class, many of these with ability to achieve above their percentile rating, be referred for a complete vision analysis."

Dr. Mazzei and Supt. Martwick are citing 12 symptoms to watch for in children who may have a vision problem:

- 1) Loses his place while reading.
- 2) Avoids close work.
- 3) Shows body rigidity while looking at distant objects.
- 4) Holds reading material closer than normal.
- 5) Shows excessive head movements.
- 6) Demonstrates poor sitting posture and position or facial expression (blinking or squinting).
- 7) Tilts head to one side.
- 8) Turns head forward.
- 9) Has headaches.
- 10) Tends to rub eyes.
- 11) Has poor eye-hand coordination.
- 12) Says words aloud or lip reads.

'Bon voyage' breakfast Saturday for Explorers

Thirty local Explorers and their leaders will leave Saturday for Colorado, following the group's second annual "bon voyage" breakfast beginning at 7 a.m. at the Granite City McDonald Restaurant.

The Explorers are all members of Explorers Post 10-4, sponsored by Madison Police Unit 110.

The itinerary includes a trip to the top of Pike's Peak and the bottom of the Royal Gorge. In addition they will visit Cave of the Winds, Service Falls, Cheyenne Mountain, the Air Force Academy, Coor's Brewery at Golden, Colo., Denver, the U.S. Mint, and Estes Park.

The Explorers, their families and others will first have breakfast as the guest of David Embury, owner of eight McDonald restaurants in Illinois.

The group will travel again on the "Big Mac," a luxury bus operated by Arno Sponeaman, transportation specialist for McDonald, and a member of the Post 10-4 adult committee. The group will operate two other vehicles on the trip.

Requests for use of schools due by Sept. 5

Organizations desiring to use Granite City School District facilities for football, soccer games or other fall activities are requested to send a letter to the Board of Education office, 20th and Adams Streets, no later than Sept. 5, according to B. J. Davis, superintendent of schools.

Those applying to use any facilities are to include in their letter of request the date, time and location of the event, and the sponsor of the organization.

Hearing on state creating a property tax commission

Currently pending legislation intended to improve and make more equitable the property tax in Illinois will be discussed by a General Assembly committee on township and county officials in a hearing to be held beginning at 9:30 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 21, in the Ramada Inn, Elmhurst.

The most controversial subject being considered is a basic revision of a primary assessing agency in the state's township structure.

Presently, there are 1,407 townships electing individual township assessors charged with the basic assessment of property.

It is on the initial work of these assessors—in assigning values to individual homes, farms and businesses—that the entire property tax structure rests.

"If their work is of a high quality, taxpayers will be paying the taxes fairly and equitably in the payment of property taxes. If the work is of low quality, taxpayers will be unfairly treated."

"During our investigation we have found that there is wide variation in the assessment of property in Illinois. Taxpayers living in nearly identical homes, which may be across the street from each other, are paying widely different taxes. This practice must stop," comments Sen. Terrell E. Clark (R, Western Springs), co-chairman of the Property Tax Study Committee.

"It is the intent of our legislative program to provide the basis for modern, efficient and, above all, fair property taxation," noted Rep. Fred J. Schaefer (D, Peoria), co-chairman of the study group.

The key element of committee proposals relating to township assessors is to provide for larger assessing districts while retaining the elective township assessor.

Smaller townships would elect one assessor to serve in several neighboring townships.

Beginning with the next general election of township officials in 1977, township assessors also will be required to have pre-election qualifications and meet certain objective standards after they have assumed office.

Another area of reform being considered involves the county supervisor of assessments. In township counties, the supervisor of assessments is charged with making all assessments.

Proposed legislation is designed to set standards for the county supervisor of assessments.

Protection from political influences is provided for the supervisor of assessments whose county is well assessed. On the other hand, it will be more difficult for the supervisor of assessments whose county is poorly assessed to retain his office," Clarke and Schaefer comment.

"Finally, the legislation will create a new State Property Tax Commission to replace state-level property tax functions currently being performed by the Department of Local Government Affairs.

"The state is responsible for insuring that there is equity in the assessment of property between counties by equalizing the county assessments. The state also is directed to furnish guidelines to the township and county assessors and assess certain classes of business property.

"The committee has found that, at least since 1946, this function has not been fairly implemented and there is no relationship between present levels of assessment in the several counties and what is required by the statutes.

"It is hoped that an independent state tax commission will result in fairer administration of the laws. The public is invited to all hearings of the property tax study group."

Major Ben Shuppert retires

Air Force Major Ben A. Shuppert, a son of Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair Shuppert, 42 Moorland Drive, retired after 30 years service in the Air Force, in ceremonies held at Scott Air Force Base.

Lieutenant General Daniel James, vice-commander of the Military Airlift Command, presided over the ceremonies and parade which preceded the event.

Major Shuppert served six years overseas including duty tours in Turkey, Thailand, Germany and Okinawa. Among honors accorded the former resident was a Merit Medal and Air Force Commendation Medal.

He and his wife, Dorothy, now reside in Belleville. Mrs. Shuppert is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Crane of Jerome, Mo., former Granite Cityans.

They have two children, Air Force Sergeant Larry Lipscomb, 24, who is now stationed at Fairchild AFB, Wash., and a 13-year-old daughter, Lisa.

Something Great is Happening

The great news is we're joining the Gallery of Homes, a national network of real estate professionals specializing in residents' sales.

Today, real estate is a national business. The buyer of your home may be an executive 2,000 miles away who's about to find out he's being transferred to your city.

Or, perhaps, you'll be relocating soon and would like to do your preliminary shopping from the comfort of our Gallery. You'll still find the same staff of competent professionals and the same friendly atmosphere here. Joining Gallery of Homes just means we're getting even better.

FOR REGISTERED NURSES
DID YOU KNOW?
That your hospital has a whooping $100,000 surplus?
We have restructured our entire nursing staff. We have eliminated our Staff Nurses from paperwork and administrative functions. We call this "Nurse-Care" and it is geared to increase productivity. In order for our program to expand our staff with nurses, we are seeking:
- You believe that ST. ELIZABETH's Hospital is the best place to work, and that the community will happily share that reputation with you.
- You are a registered nurse, a graduate of a nursing school, and you are a team player. Would it make sense to you to work for a hospital that has the facilities to see what we can do for you?

Couples exchange vows in mid-summer weddings

MR. AND MRS. LARRY CARDIN. They exchanged wedding vows at the First Church of the Nazarene. The bride is the former Miss Jeanne Annette Timmons, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Timmons, 82 Morris Court.

Cardin-Timmons wedding at Church of Nazarene

The wedding of Miss Jeanne Annette Timmons, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Timmons, 82 Morris Court, and Larry Dean Cardin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cardin, 3811 Park Lane, was solemnized at 7:30 p.m. on Aug. 1 at the First Church of the Nazarene.

Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Ronald Austin, an uncle of the bride from Flint, Mich., the Rev. Terry Bell, Memphis, Tenn., and the Rev. Herbert Merrill, pastor of the church.

The Best Man from Mount Vernon, Ill., sang, "We've Only Just Begun" and The Lord's Prayer, preceding the service. Mr. Timmons escorted his daughter down the white carpeted aisle illuminated by tall pink tapers in candelabra entwined with greenery, and through an arch to the altar which was decorated with urns of pink, blue and white blossoms.

For her wedding, the bride selected a long white organza gown designed with an empire bodice lavishly appliqued with Venice lace motifs and a high ruffled neckline. Lace formed the caplets of the long sheer sleeves and also the wide cuffs.

She wore a lace bordered veil secured to a halo headpiece and carried a cascade bouquet of white daisies, pink roses, greenery and baby's breath festooned with blue and pink streamers.

Maid of honor Miss Kathy Cardin, a sister of the groom, wore a long blue and white dotted swiss gown flocked with tiny lace and floral motifs. A blue velvet ribbon defined the high waist and was repeated at the neckline to accent a soft flowing short cape.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN ROGENSKI. Their wedding was solemnized at Our Mother of Perpetual Help Catholic Church in Maryville. Formerly Charlene Elliott Dolsadelli, the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Elliott of Maryville.

Kathlene M. Parmley and Allan Ratkewicz are wed

Miss Kathlene Marie Parmley, a daughter of Alderman and Mrs. Gerald Parmley, 3221 Willow Ave., and Allan Edward Ratkewicz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Ratkewicz, 1608 Fifth St., Madison, were united in marriage at 2:30 p.m. on June 28 at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church.

Performing the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Conrad Motola, O.F.M., and the Rev. Ted Wojcik, a cousin of the groom and pastor of St. Joseph Parish, Cottleville, Mo. Organist Jim Havranek accompanied Keith Curtis as he sang, "Hail, 'Wedding Song," "Ave Maria" and The Lord's Prayer, in the candlelight sanctuary decorated with bouquets of white mums, carnations, pom poms and white satin bows on the pews.

For her wedding, the former Miss Parmley, chose a gown of satin poms fashioned with a jewel neckline, long-fitted sleeves enhanced with Venice lace etched with aurora borealis crystals and seed pearls and a circular floor-length skirt.

Her camelot hat, embellished with the decorative trim, held a cathedral-length veil of nylon illusion edged with a narrow lace. She held a colonial bouquet of white pom poms, daisies, carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath centered with a detachable corsage of multi-colored daisies.

Maid of honor Miss Shirley Brokaw, a cousin of the bride, and bridesmaids, Miss Laura Kelly, Miss Leslie Houser, Miss Mary Ellen Gnojewski, the groom's cousin, and Miss Joy Pope were identical gowns in pastel blue, mint green, melon, pink and mauve hues.

Their satin crepe princess line, sleeveless, gowns were fashioned with Venice lace collars on the portrait necklines and a tiny lace accent at the hemlines. Each carried a bouquet of white carnations and carnations and daisies to match their attire.

John Parmley, the bride's sister, served as miniature bride. The groom chose his brother, Augustus Ratkewicz, as his best man. Groomsmen and ushers included John Ratkewicz, a cousin of the groom, John Wood, Frank Dorris, Lance Parmley, brother of the bride, Anthony V. and Andrew Ratkewicz, the groom's brothers.

Ross Parmley, another brother of the bride, was the ringbearer. Mrs. Patricia Ratkewicz and Mrs. Cathy Ratkewicz, both sisters-in-law of the groom, were candlelighters.

Miss Patricia Brokaw, the bride's cousin, attended the guest book at a reception held at the Croatian Home. The groom's parents hosted a rehearsal dinner.

The couple is now residing in Granite City following a wedding trip to Disney World and a tour of the Eastern coast.

A graduate of Granite City High School, the bride is employed as a deputy assessor at the Granite City Township assessor's office. She also is a member of Bethel 45, Order of Job's Daughters.

The groom graduated from Assumption High School and is now attending Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville. He works for E. A. Friedman Co., Madison.

Out-of-town guests were from the St. Louis and county area and from Coffeen, Ill., Buffalo Grove, Ill., Merced, Calif., Kansas City, Mo., Urbana, Ill., Crofton, Md., Chicago, Jacksonville, Ill., Adherville, Ill., and Florida.

MR. AND MRS. ALLAN E. RATKEWICZ who were married at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church in Madison. The bride is the former Miss Kathlene Marie Parmley, a daughter of Alderman and Mrs. Gerald Parmley, 3221 Willow Ave.

Charlene Dolsadelli wed in Maryville Church

The Rev. James Collins officiated at the 11 a.m. double-ring ceremony at Our Mother of Perpetual Help Church, Maryville, Ill., on July 19, uniting in marriage Charlene Elliott Dolsadelli and John Rogenski.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. William Elliott, of Maryville. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rogenski of Madison.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white cotton lace over satin, accented with lilac ribbon at the high neckline and waistline.

Her cluster bouquet, composed of pink roses, white mums and baby's breath, was centered with an orchid.

Honor attendant was Mrs. Charlotte Conway of Caseyville and Brother Joe Rogenski of Madison, a brother of the groom. Donald Conway of Caseyville served as usher.

Mrs. Conway selected a long chiffon gown styled with a lilac skirt and antique white bodice with long sleeves tightly cuffed at the wrist. She carried a bouquet of pink roses, lilac mums and baby's breath tied with lilac streamers.

Guests were entertained at a reception held at Roustio's Sirloin Strip Restaurant. Prior to her marriage the bride was employed at Roustio's. Her husband is co-owner of Nicholas Net and Twine.

Sheila Browning married in afternoon ceremony

Miss Sheila Lynn Browning and G. Craig Caldwell exchanged wedding vows at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of July 12 at Mount Zion General Baptist Church before an altar adorned with arrangements of yellow and white daisies in tall vases.

Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. J. Robert Widbin. Nuptial selections included "The Wedding Song," "My Sweet Lady," "Daddy's Little Girl" and "Follow Me." Solist Monte Kiddle was accompanied by Phillip Fischer at the piano.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Browning, Rural Route Two, Granite City. Parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Caldwell, reside at 685 Ashland Ave., Mitchell.

Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Browning, wore a Chantilly lace gown featuring a high neckline, long sheer sleeves and a bouffant tiered skirt.

Her mantilla veil of bridal illusion was lavishly appliqued with lace motifs and bordered with scalloped lace. She carried a teardrop bouquet of white carnations interspersed with baby's breath and trailing ivy.

A rehearsal dinner was served in the home of the bride's parents.

Both young people graduated from Granite City High School North. The groom is employed at the Nooter Co. They are now residing in Granite City following a wedding trip.

Attending the groom as best man was Rick Hensley, Mark and Andy Daugh, David Garner, Rick Lincoln and Kevin Byars completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Guests were received by the newlyweds at a reception held in the church hall following the ceremony.

AUGUST BRIDE. Mrs. Allan R. Warren, the former Miss Melissa G. Linscott whose wedding took place at the Campbell Road Baptist Church, Houston, Tex. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haezel of Houston.

Melissa Linscott weds Rev. Allan R. Warren

The Campbell Road Baptist Church of Houston, Tex., was the scene of the candlelight wedding of Miss Melissa G. Linscott and the Rev. Allan R. Warren at 7:30 on the evening of Aug. 8, performed by the Rev. James Speer.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Chris Haezel of Houston. The groom is a son of V. A. Warren of Granite City and Mrs. Jeanne Willis of Houston and a grandson of Mrs. Edith Shafer, 3811 State St., Granite City.

The bride, wearing a gown of Alencon lace with a chapel-length train, was given in marriage by her stepfather Mr. Haezel. She carried a bouquet of carnations, roses and baby's breath.

Miss Kathy Dunn of Henderson, Tex., served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs.

Marrietta Price, a sister of the bride, from Amarillo, Tex., and Mrs. Mary Ann Price of Houston. Kim Speer was the flower girl.

They were dressed alike in blue dotted swiss dresses complemented with lace-trimmed, long-sleeved jackets. Attending the groom was Randy Price and John Gould, both of Houston; Larry Kemp, Idalou, Tex.; Thomas Dickerson, Furney, Tex., and Kemper Smith of Shreveport, La.

A reception was held at the church following the ceremony. The newlyweds are graduates of Jacksonville (Tex.) College, where the groom graduated with honors. After a honeymoon, the couple will reside in Lubbock, Tex., where he is employed. Both will attend Texas Tech in the fall.

Pet adoptions at flea market

The local Association for the Protection of Animals will have a booth Saturday and Sunday at the Original Granite City Flea Market in the former Bieder man's Furniture building on Namekiki Road. Several kinds of dogs and cats will be offered for free adoption.

The "Pet of the Month" offering is a litter of long-haired gold and white kittens. Several other kittens and an adult long-haired gray and white cat will be offered.

Dogs available for adoption include two part-Beagle adults, a litter of part-German Shepherd puppies and other puppies.

A spokesman for the APA requested that residents not bring animals to the booth which they wish to offer for adoption.

Mount Zion Baptist marks 25th year

A memorial service for friends and members of the Mount Zion General Baptist Church who are deceased will be held at the church Sunday as part of a month-long anniversary observance marking the 25th year of the church founding. The memorial program will be held during the morning worship services.

A three-day revival Aug. 21, 22 and 23 at which Rev. Truman Collins, the church's first pastor, will be the evangelist, and an all-day service on Aug. 24, beginning with Sunday School at 9:45 a.m., also are planned as part of the silver anniversary.

The Aug. 24 program will include worship services at 10:30 a.m., dinner at the church followed by special afternoon and evening services and special singing. The Rev. Donald Clark, pastor, said the public is invited.

The anniversary program last week recognized past deacons who have served the congregation. They included Carl Garner, Arthur Chadd, Golda Lawson, Noah Morelan, Evan Lambert, James Reese, Bud Medlin, James Weatherly, Andrew Morris, Robert Boone, Laurence Griffith, Charles Martin, Everett Martin and Ora Moss.

Present church deacons are Osball Warren, Richard Gasnell, Robert Boone and Jerry Frost.

The Mount Zion church was organized in Granite City on Aug. 27, 1950, in a meeting of 17 persons at the Odd Fellows Hall. The Rev. Collins was selected as the first pastor and served eight years.

The church purchased two lots at 21st and Benton streets on Jan. 21, 1951, and conducted groundbreaking ceremonies on April 22 that year. Twenty-four persons attended that service conducted by the Rev. Collins. Work was authorized for the church structure in August 1952 and construction was completed and the church occupied in the fall of 1954.

By 1956 the church membership had grown to 134 members with an average Sunday School attendance of 160. The church now has 184 members, a Sunday School enrollment of 395 in eight departments with 24 Sunday School classes and 45 teachers. The church now operates four buses.

Pastors who have served the church include the Rev. Collins, Robert Carr, Fred Latch, Robert Helms, L. E. Hicks and the present pastor, the Rev. Clark.

Charter members included Thomas Gaines, Charles Moore, Flora Moore, William Marford, Lila Marford, Forest Sturgeon, Beulah Sturgeon, Doris Sturgeon, Sam Skief, Rose Skief, Carl Garner, Grace Garner, Madge Boone, Charles Fisk, Alma Fisk, Arthur Chadd, Elma Chadd and Loyde Cadd.

In earlier ceremonies this month, the church recognized those who have served during the 25 years as general superintendents of the Sunday School. These included Tummy Gaines, Samuel Skief, Arthur Chadd, Herb Camren, Fred Gernigan, Willis Millon, Ora Moss, Everett Martin, Wayne Miskelly and Norman Sharp, the present superintendent.

Mary Martha Class hosted at meeting

The Mary Martha Class of Mount Zion General Baptist Church, 21st and Benton streets, held a class meeting in the home of Carolyn Lemaster, 2300 Wilson Ave., with prayer led by the class teacher, Betty Warren.

A devotion titled "Blue print for a Christian Home" was presented by Deanna Williams and the Circle Prayer was led by Carolyn Lemaster. The business meeting was followed by prayer for refreshments, led by Deanna Osborn. Those attending included

Betty Warren, Deanna Williams, Donna Osborn, Lily Paul, Annette Miskelly, Shirley Goodall, Ruth Ann Williams, Carolyn Lemaster and Anita Sipes.

The class meets on the first Thursday of each month. The September meeting will be held in the home of Deanna Williams, 1610 Ferguson Ave.

Theta Theta tours DeManil House

Members and guests of Theta Theta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority toured historic DeManil House in St. Louis last week and had luncheon at the outdoor cafe located on the grounds of the tourist attraction.

Later in the afternoon the group visited many antique shops on Cherokee Street before returning home.

Chapter members who attended included Sandy Demoulin, Marsha Gianakos, Linda Givens, Jane Yates, Joyce Tracey, Linda Yates, Cindy Mucha and guests Doris Bloomenstock, Margaret Prehn and Norma Rains.

Mrs. Sturdivant is class hostess

Mrs. Elise Sturdivant, 2327 Harvey Place, was hostess to the Ruth Ford Bible Study Group of Second Baptist Church at its August meeting.

Mrs. Mina Duggens led the opening hymns, followed by meditations by Mrs. Gladys Huggins.

A program was presented by Mrs. Delores Ayres, assisted by Mesdames Naomi Ronzey, Alma Burnett, Lena Stephens, Rachel Westphal, Alene Reagan and Florence Paul.

The hostess served refreshments to those named and to Mesdames Ruby Newberry, Dena Watson, Alene Phillips, Naomi Burnett, Goldie Smith and a guest Minnie Cavins. Mrs. Newberry will host the September meeting in her home, 2349 Grand Ave.

Introducing Jōvan Ginseng Aftershave/Cologne for Men.

It possesses the power.

This is the lusty new scent with powers inspired by ginseng. Oriental wonder-root said to prolong life and love. Virility and youth. In ways that mystified the emperors who paid fortunes for it.

And their women.

Now in an aftershave/cologne so vibrant, you'll feel like a new man, every time.

A lathery soap-on-a-rope. To shower you with pleasure.

And a special gift set.

Jovan Ginseng for Men.

You should possess its power. Today.

Ginseng by Jōvan.

Aftershave/Cologne 1/2 oz. $1.25, 4 oz. $6.00, Soap-on-a-rope 7 oz. $3.50,
Gift Set (4 oz. Aftershave/Cologne and Soap-on-a-rope) $8.50.

We Do Everything for Vacationers
—but Babysit

It's surprising how many ways we can help make your vacation carefree. First, you may need a Personal Loan to cover expenses. Next, we offer Travelers Checks to protect your funds against loss or theft. Then there's our Bank-by-Mail Service which means you or your agent can make deposits while you are gone. And, of course, you'll want a Safe Deposit Box where you can safely leave your valuables—everything except the baby, that is!

There are other ways we can help should you plan a more extended absence. But whether you are gone for a week—or a year—let our Vacation Service relieve you of worrisome details. And remember, we offer these same personal services throughout the year to make your living carefree as possible.
